Leatherneck Losses Light in Fight Near Viet Nam Border

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—Three companies of U.S. Marines lifted into action by helicopter battled a Viet Cong main-force unit today 55 miles from the North Viet Nam border.

The fight still raged at nightfall after more than six hours of shooting. A Marine spokesman at Da Nang said 40 Communists were killed, against light Leatherneck losses. The Marines also captured 40 weapons, including one crew-served piece of equipment.

The new outbreak of fighting in the northernmost province followed a fierce action before dawn in which 470 South Vietnamese infantry troops and militiamen with the help of fighter-bombers and artillery turned back a stiff attack by a Communist force twice their number on a refugee settlement area 75 miles northeast of Saigon.

Weeklong Hunt

Only 17 miles from the 17th-Parallel frontier with the Communist North, battalions of government troops on a weeklong hunt for the Reds in Quang Tri Province were reported in heavy fighting. A government spokesman said the South Vietnamese soldiers were encircling 200 Viet Cong elements of two Communist battalions they had hit earlier.

Another 54 Viet Cong were killed in the day's fighting, bringing the total Communist dead since last Tuesday to 344, the spokesman said. The U.S. 7th Fleet has supported the government troops.

at 11:20 a.m. Sunday while on a ski outing at Indianhead resort near Bessemer, Mich.

He collapsed while waiting for a ski lift and was rushed to the Divine Infant Hospital in Wakefield, Mich., where he was pronounced dead.

He had been elected chairman of the Thilmany board, in addition to the presidency, just 18 days ago.

A memorial service will be held at 11 a.m. Wednesday at the First Congregational Church. A memorial fund has been established for the building fund of the church.

A civic and business leader in Appleton as well as head of the Kaukauna firm, Dostal joined Thilmany in 1946 and served as divisional sales manager, general sales manager, assistant to the executive vice president and

'Gemini 9' Astronauts Die In St. Louis Plane Crash

Civilian Elliot See Jr. and Capt. Charles Bassett Were Set for Summer Mission

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP)—U. S. astronauts Elliot M. See Jr. and Charles A. Bassett II, who were scheduled to fly into space in May, were killed today when their twin-jet plane crashed into the plant here where their space capsule was built.

See, 38, and Bassett, 33, were flying to the McDonnell Aircraft Corp. when their T-38 fighter-trainer crashed into the roof of the space center at McDonnell's huge complex. McDonnell makes the Gemini spacecraft as well as Phantom jet fighter planes used in Viet Nam.

Ten persons working on a Phantom fighter were injured when the plane crashed at 9 a.m. (CST) into the top of the building, skidded over the roof and then crashed into a construction parking area below.

The plane burst into flames and was destroyed. Witnesses, who heard a series of booms before the plane exploded, said both bodies were thrown out by the impact.

Flames and smoke then towered into the air. None of the 10 injured was believed hurt seriously.

The plane was making an instrument landing in light fog when it crashed. Another T-38 fighter-trainer, also circling the airport, landed safely.

The Federal Aviation Agency said the cause of the crash was not known. The Weather Bureau said visibility was 1 1/2 miles and the ceiling 800 feet.

The astronauts were on their

Space Weather Network Ready

ESSA 2 Launching Puts Into Operation First Orbital System

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP)—ESSA 2, a mechanical meteorologist designed to snap and transmit cloud and storm pattern photos almost in the twinkling of its camera eyes, soared into orbit today to complete the world's first operational space weather reporting network.

Together with the earlier ESSA 1, the new weather watcher will provide a combination of global coverage every day and instant pictures to local forecasters in 22 nations.

Dubbed "everyman's satellite" because of its potential usefulness to all countries, the new weather observatory thundered away from Cape Kennedy right on schedule at 8:58 a.m. (EST) atop a Douglas Delta rocket that drilled it into orbit about 850 miles above the earth.

Check Systems

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration announced the success of the flight and officially named the satellite ESSA 2, for environmental survey satellite. Ground stations planned to activate its cameras on Wednesday, after first checking out all payload systems.

Each of the two cameras is to take and transmit a picture every six minutes.

ESSA 1, launched Feb. 3, also carries two cameras which photograph all areas of the globe at least once every day, storing the pictures on board until the payload is over one of two receiving stations in the United States.

These pictures are distributed to interested weather agencies around the world.

The instant pictures can be used to improve local weather forecasts, to issue warnings of severe weather and to help select the safest routes for aircraft in flight and ships at sea.

The Ejection Seats of Two Astronauts lie in the wake of the T-38 jet trainer that crashed late this morning at the McDonnell Aircraft Corp. building in St. Louis, killing Elliot M. See Jr. and Capt. Charles A. Bassett II. Foam used to extinguish the flames on the burning plane still clings to the aircraft's charred superstructure, shown at the top of the picture. (AP Wirephoto)

Senate Controversy

Showdown Due on Viet Nam Argument

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Armed Services Committee, Senate argument over Viet Nam rolls toward a showdown today as administration forces seek to free a pair of embattled bills.

They appear to have the votes to carry both issues—an emergency $414-million foreign aid measure for Viet Nam now pending before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and the $4.8-billion Viet Nam military authorization waiting action on the Senate floor.

The senators also may get a chance late today to vote on a proposal to rescind or modify the 1964 Gulf of Tonkin resolution cited by President Johnson as giving him the authority to take any steps necessary to combat Communist aggression in Southeast Asia.

One of the leading critics of the Johnson Viet Nam policies, Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., has promised to introduce the proposal in an amendment to the Viet Nam money bill.

If he does, Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., chairman of the over a possible future role for the Viet Cong in the South Vietnamese government.

Kennedy, a New York Democrat, suggested again that in order to negotiate a peace in South Viet Nam, the United States "must understand that the Communists... might end up in some way or another within the governmental structure of Viet Nam."

Humphrey, who initially attacked Kennedy's proposal as being equivalent to putting "a fox in a chicken coop," said on ABC's television-radio program "Issues and Answers" that his first assessment might have been "a little too genteel."

"The Viet Cong is not a fox," Humphrey said. "It has a more rapacious nature."

"Assassination, Murder"

"The Viet Cong is not an Asian version of the Americans for Democratic Action or the liberal wing of the Republican or Democratic party," he said. "They

Jakarta Student Groups in Melee

SINGAPORE (AP)—An anti-Communist student group banned by President Sukarno clashed today with pro-Communist students in Jakarta, reliable sources reported. Police had to fire over the heads of the students to break up the melee.

The pro-Communist students had just attended a rally in Sukarno Stadium where the president told them: Indonesia "will soon return to its original leftist track." He warned that anyone off at Frankfurt, Germany, to take a plane tonight for the meeting in Ethiopia of the foreign ministers of the Organization of African Unity.

Nkrumah apparently hoped Quaison-Sackey could rally support at the OAU meeting for the ousted regime. Possibly he hopes that the organization will refuse to admit the representatives of the new Ghanaian government.

Anti-Strike Plan Topic of Labor Leaders

AFL-CIO Council Takes Up Another Issue With Johnson

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—The AFL-CIO Executive Council took up another sore point with the White House today in discussing President Johnson's anti-strike proposal.

"There are grave problems for the government, labor, industry and the states" in any such new legislation, a spokesman for AFL-CIO President George Meany said.

Although the labor leaders say they have no details on what Johnson might recommend to Congress, they fear any anti-strike legislation would curb their ultimate weapon.

Discussion of Johnson's anti-strike proposal comes after two weeks of sniping between the AFL-CIO and the Johnson administration over White House efforts to hold down wage increases, how much of a minimum-wage increase should be recommended to Congress, and complaints that the Democratic administration has not lived up to its political promises to labor.

No Laws Being Drafted

Although no legislation reportedly is being drafted at the moment to curb strikes, the Labor Department has been working on drafts that could lead to a bill for Congress to consider.

Johnson first broached the proposal in his State of the Union message, saying he would ask Congress to consider measures to deal with strikes that threaten irreparable harm to the national interest.

On the economic front, AFL-CIO leaders still refuse to accept White House guidelines that attempt to hold wage increases to 3.2 per cent a year.

Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz said Sunday that "We've got to press harder" to persuade both labor and business to hold down wage and price increases that threaten inflation.

Price Index Hike Halts In January

WASHINGTON (AP)—The rise in consumer prices halted in January for the first time since last summer, the Labor Department announced today.

The consumer price index leveled off at 111 per cent of the 1957-59 average, where it stood in December. This was 1.9 per cent above a year ago.

Labor Department officials said the report was "gratifying after four consecutive months of increase."

Arthur Ross, commissioner of the Bureau of Labor Statistics, told reporters: "I would caution you not to make too much of this; we do not believe it is too significant."

Ross said there had been months during 1965 in which the index stayed level or declined, even though the year-long movement was upward.

Fox Cities to Get Taste of Spring

Nkrumah, on Way to Moscow, Vows Retaliation

Secret Red 'Freedom Fighters' Camp In Ghana's Jungle Unveiled by Rebels

ACCRA, Ghana (AP)—Ghana's new revolutionary government unveiled a secret jungle "freedom fighters" camp today. It said Red Chinese instructors helped train 133 African saboteurs there from South Africa, Rhodesia and other countries.

Newsman taken on a tour of the camp found a handful of African trainees plus a dozen instructors, most of them Ghanaian soldiers.

The instructors said they were paid by the Bureau of African Affairs, which was run personally by ousted President Kwame Nkrumah.

The camp commander, former regimental Sgt. Maj. Fuseimi Bazabarini of the Ghanaian army, told newsmen "about 13 Chinese came here to train Africans."

Bazabarini said the camp originally set up in western

Ghana, was moved to its present site 130 miles north of Accra in October 1964.

Vow By Nkrumah

Nkrumah, who was in Peking when he was overthrown Thursday, left the Red Chinese capital aboard a Soviet plane today. He vowed to crush those who deposed him, the Japan Broadcasting Corp. —NHK—said.

NHK's Peking correspondent

said Nkrumah's destination was not disclosed, but it was thought to be Moscow.

Dr. Jonathan Bossman, Ghana's high commissioner to Britain, arrived in London from Peking today. He said that when Nkrumah heard he had been thrown out he was stunned and didn't believe it.

Bossman left Peking with Nkrumah's foreign minister, Alex Quaison-Sackey, who got off at Frankfurt, Germany, to take a plane tonight for the meeting in Ethiopia of the foreign ministers of the Organization of African Unity.

Nkrumah apparently hoped Quaison-Sackey could rally support at the OAU meeting for the ousted regime. Possibly he hopes that the organization will refuse to admit the representatives of the new Ghanaian government.

Tucson Insurance Broker Robert F. Allen has very little time left to spend with his young family. Allen is dying from cancer. His only hope of surviving more than six months is finding someone with the same type cancer and blood so he can undergo a rare tumor transplant treatment. Surrounding him are sons Tracy, 6 left, Doug, 5, Sherri, 2½, and wife, Anita. (AP Wirephoto)

Cancer Victim Seeks Right Person Who Can Save His Life

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Robert F. Allen is still seeking the "right person" today who might save his life. In the past two days a ray of hope has brightened his search.

Allen, 28, a Tucson insurance executive, has osteogenic sarcoma, a rare type of bone cancer, and has been given two to six months to live by his doctors.

Allen, who has had one leg amputated, has received about 90 telephone calls from the people wanting to help.

A spokesman for Allen and his wife said this in itself is remarkable, since only those who suffer from the same type of cancer can help the stricken man.

Same Blood

The person Allen seeks must also have O-positive blood. Allen said 10 of the volunteers may be able to help him and he will discuss their offers with his doctors.

If the donor meets the requirements, and agrees with Allen to undergo a new cancer treatment, both of them may live.

Dr. Sigmund H. Nadler and Dr. George E. Moore, of the Roswell Park Memorial Institute in Buffalo, N.Y., have performed a successful tumor transplant operation.

Tumor Combatants
The doctors said they have found that antibodies can be generated to combat tumors by transplanting them from one patient to another.

White blood cells, which carry the antibodies, can be withdrawn from one patient and given to the other to destroy his cancer and vice versa.

Moore and Nadler said their treatment worked in the case of a woman with skin cancer. Although Allen has bone cancer, Nadler has agreed to perform the treatment on him and another patient.

"I don't care if the chances are 100 to 1 against it," Allen said. "It would be better than the 100-to-nothing odds I am facing now."

But he added there is a great difference between what he believes and the statements made by such administration spokesmen as Humphrey, Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Under-Secretary of State George W. Ball.

"Perhaps Mr. Moyers and I are closer together than some of the other spokesmen are to one another," Kennedy said. Without specifically referring to Humphrey, he added:

"I think that statements that are made that we will never deal with assassins or murderers make it difficult for them (the Viet Cong) to believe that they are being asked to come to the negotiating table for anything other than to surrender."

Communist China, speaking through its official New China News Agency, termed Kennedy's proposal a trial balloon and said the Vietnamese people never will agree to the Viet Cong "playing a walk-on part as a showpiece in the puppet regime fostered by the United States."

A Republican organization joined in and accused both Humphrey and Kennedy of building up their images at the expense of U.S. foreign policy. The two are considered by some to be front runners in the race for the Democratic presidential nomination after Johnson steps out.

The Humphrey-Kennedy debate on Viet Nam, said the Council of Republican Organizations, "has confused the American people, contributed to national disunity and created international disquiet over our purposes."

The $414-million emergency foreign aid measure may be the subject of a Senate Foreign Relations Committee debate before the committee meets. It was that bill that served as the launching pad for the committee's highly publicized probe of Johnson's Asian policies.

Two administration supporters, Sens. Russell B. Long, D-La., and Stuart Symington, D-Mo., said they will attempt to cut off the committee's hearings and turn out the emergency bill for floor action.

ain of masterminding the coup. "These criminals will pay dearly and quickly," he declared in a broadcast.

The new Ghanaian government issued a proclamation today asserting its right to rule and suspending the constitution.

Ruled by Decree
The 10-point proclamation said the National Liberation Council which overthrew Nkrumah's regime would rule by decree and set up committees to administer "the affairs of state."

In an analysis of Ghana's financial plight, the council of army and police leaders said the country had been brought to the brink of bankruptcy by "the gross economic mismanagement of the old government."

When Ghana gained independence from Britain in 1958 it had more than $560 million in the treasury. Today the nation is saddled with staggering debts.

In London, a political foe of Nkrumah said the ex-president has a hidden army of up to 1,000 Soviet, Chinese and Ghanaian troops waiting a signal from him to launch a counterattack in Accra.

Dr. Kobina Taylor, who said he headed Ghana's United party before Nkrumah outlawed it, claimed that the clandestine army has an arms cache with "10 times the fire power of the whole Ghana army plus enough food to last six months."

Taylor did not indicate what the secret force was doing when Nkrumah was overthrown.

Dr. Kobina Taylor, calling himself chairman of the Ghana United Party, speaks at a press conference in London Sunday. He said that ousted Ghana President Kwame Nkrumah has a hidden army of up to 1,000 Russian, Chinese and Ghanaian troops in Accra awaiting the word of Nkrumah to launch a counterstroke. The job of a backup crew is to train simultaneously so as to be prepared to take over should the primary crew be prevented from making a flight.

Stafford was the pilot on the historic Gemini 6 rendezvous mission with Navy Capt. Walter M. Schirra Jr. last Dec. 15. Gemini 6 rendezvoused in space with Gemini 7.

The deaths of See and Bassett cut the U.S. space team to 31 astronauts, including five scientists who were added to the training program last year.

See and Bassett became the second and third astronauts to be killed since the manned space program began in 1959 with the selection of seven Mercury astronauts.

Air Force Capt. Theodore C. Freeman, 34, a member of the 1963 selectees, was killed Oct. 31, 1964, when a goose struck the windshield of his T38 as he was landing at Ellington Air Force Base after a routine training flight.

The 15 jet planes used by the astronauts are based at Ellington, which is between the space center and downtown Houston.

See, 38, a civilian, was selected in the second group of astronauts selected in 1962. A native of Dallas, Tex., he was a Navy pilot from 1953 through 1956.

The Marines called for artillery and air strikes after they landed on a peninsula about six miles southeast of the Marine enclave at Phu Bai near the old imperial capital of Hue, 400 miles northeast of Saigon. The enemy was described as a hard-core force of about 400 troops.

The Marines are part of a task force, including a battalion of Vietnamese troops, that has been hunting the Viet Cong since Friday.

For the first time the Air Force's lightweight F5 Freedom Fighter jets joined the air attacks against the North, hitting a road complex 60 miles south of Vinh. The small fighter-bombers have been operating within South Viet Nam since Nov. 1 on a trial basis.

They cost far less and are simpler to maintain than the F4C Phantom and F105 Thunderchief jets that have borne a heavy share of the campaign against the Communist North. The single F5 squadron in the war theater flies out of Da Nang.

NEW YORK (AP) — More remarks that housewives get tired of hearing — or overhearing:

"Don't you get tired of having nothing to do all day?"

"That tripe a la mode de caen you served was delicious. Did you buy it frozen from the supermarket?"

"All right, maybe I have already missed the 7:12 train. I'm tied up with an out of town client. But I'll make the 8:15 for sure. If not, look for me when I get there."

"Get the kids off the street, honey. I'm driving home myself."

"Why should you get all hot and bothered? Junior won't be eligible for the draft for six more years, and it'll probably be all over by then."

"Sure, I'll bring you breakfast in bed, baby — on your 50th wedding birthday."

"Why is there always more garbage when I carry it out than when you carry it out? Are you skipping your turn?"

Left-Handed

"The delivery man from the department store brought a new coat while you were gone. I opened the package, took one look at the price tag, and told him there must be some mistake. He took it back. Anyway, it looked too big for you."

"Why should we go out to eat tonight? Didn't I take you out last month?"

"It's hard to understand the marriage. Neither of them had money."

"No wonder he took up boating. Wouldn't you take up something to get away from her?"

"At her age she should never wear skirts that short. They make her knees look like a matched set of hornets' nests."

"Frankly, the boss agreed with a lot of the points you told me to make. But he said there were a lot of other fellows ahead of me who needed a raise more."

Just Repetition

"What do you mean I never listen to you? I heard every word you said. I heard them all back in 1942, too."

"He isn't actually on a crash diet. It's just that she handles the money now."

"Mama, we're studying about Abraham Lincoln in school. Did you know his wife, Mary Todd, very well?"

"If you'd majored in electrical engineering in college instead of psychology, honey, you'd be able to fix the vacuum cleaner yourself."

"There isn't time to send my sports jacket to the cleaner's, mom. Can't you just give it a quick press?"

"So that's the new hat everybody in the neighborhood is laughing about? It looks okay to me."

"Their marriage must have been arranged in heaven. Certainly it's hard to find any reason on earth for it."

"You simply don't understand, Mama. Don't you remember what it was like to be young and in love?"

"Please don't tell Daddy. If you do have to, say you were driving. He never gets mad at you."

"If you aren't ready in five minutes, we're not going at all."

Scouts Plan Camp Rallies This Weekend

LITTLE CHUTE—Camp rallies have been scheduled Friday and Saturday at the Village Hall.

Barbara Berken and Shari Gneiser, winners of last year's Kiwanis camperships, will talk about Chalk Hills Girl Scout Camp Friday for Senior, Cadette and sixth grade Junior Scouts.

At 10:30 a.m. Saturday a rally will be held for fourth and fifth grade Junior Scouts. Brownies will attend the rally at 1:30 p.m. Saturday. Senior Scouts will explain camping at both Saturday rallies.

All Scouts will attend the 9 a.m. Girl Scout Sunday mass.

Scouting crafts are on display in the windows of local businesses during the Annual Scout Week observance.

Future plans include the annual father-daughter banquet at 6 p.m. March 13 at Van Abel's Restaurant, Hollandtown. A turnout of 250 Scouts and their fathers is expected.

He was a reporter for the Idaho State Journal, Pocatello, Idaho, and now teaches journalism at Brookfield Central High School. The couple plans a June wedding.

Spot Crime Of Noble Declarer

"Present-day crimes don't intrigue me." Sherlock Holmes complained. "Where would you see nowadays a crime like the hand played by Lord Grenoc in the Nichevo Cup finals thirty years ago?"

"His Lordship ruffed the ace of diamonds, drew trumps and led out the ace and queen of clubs," Holmes reminisced. "West refused the trick, of course?" Dr. Watson asked anxiously.

"Of course. This was no vulgar mugging. Grenoc then Passaic, N.J., where they lived nah. They also have 15 grand-until 1932 when Mr. Smith was children and two great - grand-children of three men sent to Neenah children.

"So his Lordship had to lose a spade trick?" the good Doctor asked.

"Obviously," Holmes snapped. "What a classic crime. To mangle the hand of a lifetime!"

"Quite so," Watson agreed. "Ahem. He should have led a low spade before touching the clubs, and he'd have caught West quite off balance."

"He wasn't playing against children," Holmes observed dryly. "You don't seem to be much better than his Lordship."

Watson had to admit that he hadn't spotted the crime. So Holmes showed him how Lord American family lists four points as a general guide to help hand. You've seen the solution, you decide whether medical aid of course, but check it before you read on.

South must ruff the first diamond with a high heart. Then he leads out the ace and king of hearts and continues with the deuce of hearts. West is forced to win (even if he has been careful to drop the nine and ten), and any return puts dummy in the lead to give declarer discards on the diamonds.

Daily Question

Partner opens with two hearts, forcing to game. The next player passes, and you hold: S J 10 2 H 6 5 D K Q J 10 4 C J 10 3. What do you say?

ANSWER: Bid 2 NT. Do not make a positive response on one king, one queen and an assortment of jacks. A positive response to a two-bid should show a willingness to bid a slam, and you need aces and kings — not jacks — for a slam.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith, to start the local plant of the 221 S. Oak St., plan an Open Raybestos Manhattan Rubber House from 2 to 4 p.m. Saturday at Eagles Hall, Neenah, in observance of their 50th wedding anniversary.

The couple was married in Passaic, N.J., where they lived nah. They also have 15 grand-until 1932 when Mr. Smith was children and two great - grand-children of three men sent to Neenah children.

Times to Seek Help of Physician

When should you call a physician?

All of us are now and then faced with a quick decision: should we, or shouldn't we call the doctor?

The American Medical Association's manual of health information and guidance for the American family lists four points as a general guide to help you decide whether medical aid should be sought at once:

When the patient's complaint or symptoms are too severe to be endured, such as abdominal pain common to a gall bladder attack or appendicitis attack or kidney colic, or sudden chest pains. Immediate relief is then the purpose of calling the doctor without delay.

Persistent Symptom

When an apparently minor symptom persists for more than a few days or a week, and does not appear to be due to some easily identified cause. A nose bleed from a sharp blow is one thing; a nose that bleeds constantly or frequently for no apparent reason is quite a different matter.

When the symptom returns repeatedly for no readily apparent cause. Digestive disturbances due to overindulgence are one thing; constant digestive distress despite great care and moderation in eating is another.

When in doubt, it is safer to call the doctor than to take a chance.

After Accidents

Accidents require immediate medical attention when the victim is unconscious; when bleeding is severe or cannot be controlled; when the victim is groggy or confused; when there are signs of shock—pale cold skin, sweating and weak pulse; or when serious or extensive burns have occurred; when persistent severe vomiting is present; when vision is suddenly lost when there are signs of broken or blurred.

Wife Discovers Husband's Infidelity After Car Accident

BY ANN LANDERS

DEAR ANN LANDERS. I hope your readers will learn something from my bitter experience.

Last week my husband was driving home on slippery pavement. His car went out of control and he hit a telephone pole. They called me from the hospital and said he was in critical condition. When I arrived my husband was in surgery, where he remained for almost two hours. I prayed the whole time.

I was in the corridor when they brought him down. The doctor said he had a good chance to recover. Then a nurse handed me his watch and billfold. Well, Ann, he has recovered, but I don't know if I ever will.

In his billfold were two letters from a woman with whom he obviously had had an affair. She was begging him to come back. I did not recognize her name and don't know if she lives in this city or elsewhere since there was no envelope.

I am crushed to think that my husband would have deceived me this way. Our 22 - year marriage was considered ideal by everyone who knew us.

Yesterday he asked for his billfold. When I handed it to him he wanted to know if I had seen the contents. I said, "Yes." He told me how horribly ashamed he was and swore that he had not seen the woman since December and that he would never see her again.

I am trying to believe in him and trust him once more. I guess the real lesson to be learned here is this: Never carry anything with you that you would not be willing to let the whole world see. Lord alone knows when your next of kin might be handed the damning evidence. — Victim of Fate

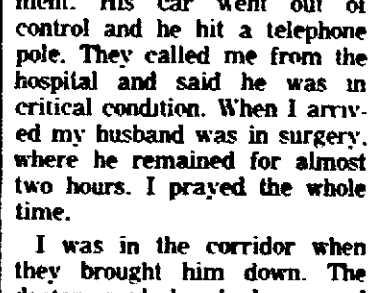

Dear Husbands: How many of you could hand your wallet to your wife at this very moment and not be concerned about what she may find?

If you can't, you'd better do something about it. Like now.

DEAR ANN LANDERS. Maybe I'm a nut to let this bother me but it does and I want your opinion.

My name is Florence and I like the name. When anyone calls me Flo I bristle inside because I detest that nickname. And I absolutely despise the as they are.

Our daughter's name is Katherine. I loathe the names Kathy, Kate, Katie, and Kay. My daughter loathes them also. She is only eight years old but she knows what she likes.

Yesterday Katherine came from school and told me that a new girl named Katherine joined the class and the teacher has decided to call our Katherine Kathy in order to avoid confusion.

This infuriated me. I want to write a note to the teacher telling her to call our daughter by her correct name. My

Landers

What do you say? — Livid

Dear Livid: Yes, you are a nut to let this bother you but at least you admit that your hostility is grossly out of proportion to the "injustice." Now that you have effectively transferred your untidiness about nicknames to your daughter, please let the poor, innocent teacher in on it. She can then call the other Katherine Kathy and everyone will be happy.

Are you at war with your parents? Do they have too much to say in your life? Send for Ann Landers' booklet, "Bugged By Parents' How to Get More Freedom." Send 50 cents in coin with your request and along, stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Templonic Club in Mardi Gras Mood

"Come to the Mardi Gras" was the theme in which members of the Templonic Dance Club partied Saturday evening at the Masonic Temple. The dinner dance decorations carried out the mood with streamers, masks and balloons.

The party was planned by Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Rusch, chairmen, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Casper. Mr. and Mrs. Al Eisenach, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Gjerard, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Sell and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schumacher. The Lynford Meyers are general chairmen for the year.

Dinner and dancing in a festive Mardi Gras mood provided a pleasant evening for Templonic Dance Club members. Above are Mr. and Mrs. Everett Sell and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Rusch. (Post-Crescent Photos)

Child Likes Foods He Can Handle

Part of a preschooler's learning to like foods is his learning to handle both his food and tools. He has to learn to coordinate his eye, hand and mouth movements.

The food you serve helps him develop this coordination and learn to like foods, too.

Considering the learning and the good nutrition that comes from mealtime it ought to be a happy experience. Children like the companionship and they like the color and textures of food, too.

Give your preschooler a colorful plate of foods with varied textures. Strips of toast, wedges of raw fruit, vegetable sticks all add crunchiness. Let these be the finger foods to go with other soft-textured foods. Then he won't have to handle tools.

If you serve soup make it thick enough to spoon easily or thin enough to drink from a cup. Unless meat is shredded, chopped or most tender, cut it in small pieces before serving.

If you introduce a strong-flavored vegetable serve it with bland or mild-flavored foods. As for any new food, keep the serving small. If he doesn't like it, try it again in a few days. Be a good example of trying something new yourself.

Preschoolers do like to feed themselves and usually turn to better eaters when they're allowed to do so.

Charity Bridge Set Friday at Elks Club

Top bridge players across the United States and Canada will play the same hands in competition with each other Friday at the annual American Contract Bridge League Charity game. The event in Appleton is scheduled at 8-15 p.m. at the Appleton Elks Club. More than 200 cities will participate in the contest, at the same time the hands are played at the Spring National Championships in Louisville, Ky. James Burrows, Menasha, will be director of the games in Appleton.

Last year the entry fees amounted to a quarter million dollars for the American Cancer Society and the United Cerebral Palsy Associations. Since July a board of trustees of the play for the purposes of discussion.

It is not necessary to be a member of the ACBL to participate in the charity event. Copies of the analysis of the hands are provided every game director in Paisy Associations. Since July a board of trustees of the play for the purposes of discussion.

Scouts 'Travel' Around World In Thinking Day Observance

Girl Scouts and Girl Guides all over the world set aside Tuesday as a special "Thinking Day" to reflect on each others cultures, languages and customs and exchange greetings. It was the birthday anniversary of Lord and Lady Baden-Powell, founders of Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts.

Scouts from Foster School marked Thinking Day Wednesday with scouts from Huntley, Einstein and Franklin schools invited to attend. Invitations were in the shape of international friendship puns.

The program included a candlelight ceremony during which each of the 10 laws of scouting were repeated in different foreign languages to signify unity around the world. Games that originated in other countries were played.

Refreshments, songs and costumes reflected other lands.

Mrs. Owen Kuehnmsted is the junior troop leader. Mrs. Kenneth Davis is leader at Foster School, assisted by Mrs. William Miller, Mrs. R. Barton Hammond and Mrs. Milton Schwandt.

Thinking Day was celebrated at Richmond School Thursday. Eleven Brownie and Junior Troops participated.

The program opened with a flag ceremony by Cadette Troop 102 with Mrs. Marvin Moritz as leader. Songs and dances representing Mexico, Japan, Holland, Sweden, Turkey, Germany, Hawaii and the United States were given.

Contributions for the Juliette Low World Friendship Fund were received and a grand march took place with participants in costumes of various countries. A Living Circle ceremony closed the program.

Mrs. H. Pete Christensen, service team chairman, was chairman.

Service Area Six troops taking part in the event were from Richmond School, Brownie Troop 4, Mrs. William Hardt, leader; Brownie Troop 132, Mrs. James Arndt, leader; Junior Troop 280, Mrs. Paul Klemmer, leader, and Junior Troop 385, Mrs. Thomas Pagel, leader.

Brownie Troop 5, Mrs. Ronald LeFevre, leader, and Junior Troop 17, Mrs. Edward Deschler, leader, came from St. Bernadette Catholic School.

Troops from Johnston School were Brownie Troops 71, 162 and 197. Leaders are Mrs. Robert Diedrich, Mrs. Ralph Cotter and Mrs. Frank Keller. Junior Troops participating from Johnston School were 22 and 191. Mrs. Ray Heinritz and Mrs. James Calder are leaders.

Ann Vander Zanden and Wanda Brouillard look at dolls from foreign countries as they take part in the Thinking Day program for Scouts at Foster School.

Although They Are dressed in foreign costumes, these Scouts look very much at home around the American flag. They are Beth Ann Bonner, Kay

One of the first questions put to the four women running for office in Outagamie County in the spring primary was "To what do you attribute the turnout tonight?"

It was a fair question, for only 18 women were on hand at the Outagamie County Bank for the program sponsored by the Appleton and Valley Business and Professional Women's Clubs. This in spite of the fact that co-chairmen Mrs. Mabel visor, Mrs. Helen Heil, school board, and Mrs. Barbara Ste-

Miss Evelyn Ecker of the Appleton Club contacted pres- by telephone and sent confirm- ing letters telling of the pro- gram. Represented by those attending were the two BPW Clubs and a contingent of Altrusa Club members.

The candidates and the offices they seek are Mrs. Dorothy Stillings, city clerk; Mrs. Rose Schroeder, Third district super- visor; Mrs. Helen Heil, school board; and Mrs. Barbara Ste-

They commented that it was a government were not there to ask. The question was raised whether, in spite of the talk of political office, women's increasing interest and responsibility in society, they are just not concerned enough as a political debate. Rather, it was planned to give the women of the community the opportunity to see what it was the beginning has to be made and, indeed, pave the way for more fruitful discussions in future years.

The Women of the County had the opportunity to meet women who are seeking public office in the spring election Thursday evening at a program sponsored by the Appleton and Valley Business and Professional Women's Clubs. ## Army Considers Change In Notifying Next of Kin

By MARTHA COLE WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army is studying the possibility of using military resources, rather than commercial tele- graph, to notify next of kin of overseas casualties.

This was disclosed in an exchange of letters between an Army officer and Rep Horace R Kornegay, D-N.C., who said there must be a better way than the present one.

Kornegay said a mother in his district had received notice delivered by a commercial taxi driver to her home at night that her son had been killed in action in Viet Nam.

Claim Some 'Retarded' Misdiagnosed

NEW YORK (AP) — One fourth of the mentally retarded children in the United States have been misdiagnosed and actually have normal mental ability, says the executive director of the National Association for Retarded Children.

"Of the nation's six million retarded, probably far more than a million have been misdiagnosed," writes Luther W Stringham in the March issue of Parents' magazine.

The article is based on a 1962 study by Dr Richard B Koch, director of the child development clinic at Children's Hospital of Los Angeles.

The diagnostic errors are made because of the difficulty in identifying mental retardation, according to the article. The only means of making such identification is by observing how children develop.

"Slow Children

If some children lag far behind for years in learning how to stand, walk and speak, the article says, doctors conclude they are retarded.

But there are many hidden reasons for slow development, Dr Koch says, and the doctors make wrong decisions 25 per cent of the time. The tragedy of this, he says, is that when the misdiagnosed "are treated as if they are retarded, they are like- ly to become permanently re- tardard. The error cheats them of normal lives."

SHEBOYGAN — A year has made a big difference for Linda Adams, freshman co-ed from Morrisville, Pa., who was selected as Lakeland College's "Best Dressed Co-ed for entry in the 1966 national competition sponsored by Glamour Maga- zine.

Last February, it is doubtful if Linda would have received any consideration for the honor. for the slum, 5-ft 6-in., 113-lb blonde then weighed 185 pounds. High school friends, both male and female, teased her by calling her "Tubby Bazoo" and "Adams Apple."

Coaxed by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Adams, Linda decided to go a diet. Her parents promised her she would be a much prettier girl and, obviously, more popular and happier.

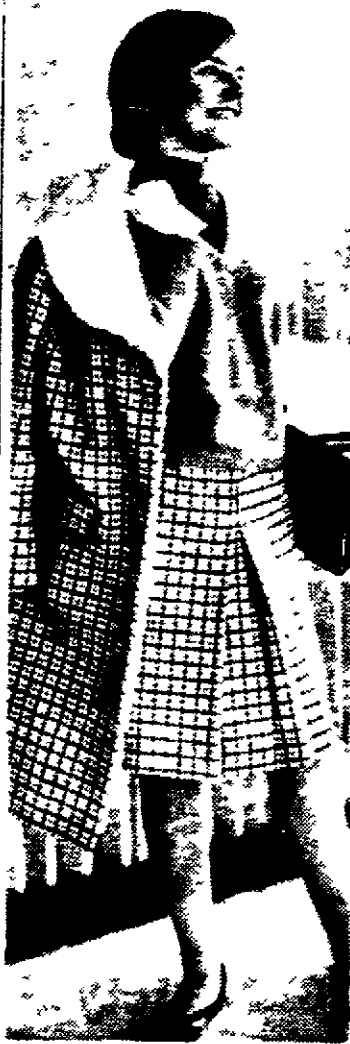

Low Calorie Linda decided to slim down to about 120 lbs. Her aunt, a medical doctor, proposed an 800-calorie a day diet, allowing her to eat lean meats and vegetable salads but no desserts.

Six months later and 65 pounds lighter, Linda reached her goal. Now, at 113, she has no desire to get back on a heavier eating schedule. She was a 20 dress size and now wears sevens and eights.

Part of her therapy during the diet was a promise by her folks that after she reached 120, they would buy her a new wardrobe for college. During the trans- formation, Linda's old clothes were altered to fit.

Was a Preemie Lakeland's Best Dressed Co-ed winner was born prematurely and spent some time in an incubator but she was a chubby girl most of her 18 years. Her mother is considered petite at 5-ft 4-in. tall and 115 lbs, but her father is a robust 6-ft. 4-in., 240 lbs. A younger brother, Adam, Jr., 17, is a well-built athlete at 6-ft 1-in and 190 lbs.

Linda won over six other finalists in the annual Lakeland Glamour on Parade competi- tion, sponsored jointly by the college's Campus Center Board and Glamour Magazine. She will now represent her school in the national contest to find the 10 Best Dressed Co-eds in the nation.

Wide X-Ray Program for Cancer Testing Initiated

CHICAGO — Preliminary re- sults are encouraging in a mas- sive X-ray screening program designed to detect breast cancer in wom- en.

The current Journal of the American Medical Association describes the cancer - detection program of the Health Insur- ance Plan of Greater New York and the National Cancer Insti- tute.

Sixty thousand women be- tween ages 40 and 64 are being examined. Thirty thousand will receive their regular medical care and will be the control group. The remaining 30,000 are receiving medical checkups and breast X - rays three times a year.

Hopes for Study Purpose of the study is to determine whether such a mas- sive screening program actual- ly does help reduce cancer deaths. Final results may not be known for five to ten years.

Twenty-three breast cancers have been detected in the first, 10,000 women examined. Six- teen of these cancers (70 per cent) were detected before they had spread to nearby lymph nodes.

Twelve of the 23 women un- derwent tissue examination af- ter X-rays alone detected their cancers. In 10 cases (83 per cent), the cancers were de- tected before they had spread to nodal areas.

Control Group This compares with the control group, in which 14 cancers were confirmed, eight of them (57 per cent) in early stages. Early detection alone, how-

Is your head pounding—nose running—are your eyes watering and are you sneezing—sneezing—sneezing? Have you blown your nose until it is raw? We're sorry you're suffering so because obviously you're not aware of our product SYNA-CLEAR and this is our fault.

SYNA-CLEAR is the original timed release tablet that gives up to eight hours of real relief from cold symptoms and clogged up sinuses.

We do not have millions to spend on TV to tell you about SYNA-CLEAR just this small ad. We do not gimmick our Advertising and product by offering twelve hours of medication. What is medication without relief?

SYNA-CLEAR is what we offer and it gives you eight hours relief per tablet or your money back in full.

We could go into detail how our product works and about the fine formula, but we would rather you ask the experts about SYNA-CLEAR. The druggist at the store listed below or your family doctor can tell you about the merits of our fine formula. SYNA-CLEAR costs more ($1.50 and $3.00 sizes) because it does more. You're buying relief and not gimmicks. Try SYNA-CLEAR as soon as possible—you know—all your miseries are all you can lose.

This little ad has an awful big job to do—to get you to try SYNA-CLEAR, so as a bonus, cut me out and send in with an empty SYNA-CLEAR carton and we'll mail you a check for 50c for just trying SYNA-CLEAR. If you have time to tell us about the results SYNA-CLEAR gave you, we would be pleased to hear from you.

Pregnancy and Job Rights Pose Complex Problem for Employers

BY SYLVIA PORTER

U.S. corporations. Here are two under Title VII." The ramifications of the civil rights law are stretching way out indeed! (All Rights Reserved)

"Equality for the Pregnant Working Woman" is soon likely to become a new battle cry under the Civil Rights law — a signal to all employers to review their policies now on female employees when they marry or become pregnant.

It's commonplace in our country for an employer to require a pregnant employee to resign. This is probably illegal in view of the fact that under the 1964 bar against sex discrimination, an employer can't refuse to hire a married woman or force her to resign when she marries, unless similar rules apply to men.

It's commonplace for employers to pass over pregnant employees who otherwise would be eligible for transfer, promotion or raises and to restrict recently married women to routine jobs to minimize costs of wasted training. These practices also are probably illegal in view of Title VII of the historic act.

Leaves Limited

It's commonplace for employers to grant leaves of absence for various personal reasons, but to exclude leaves for maternity specifically or effectively by limiting leaves to a 30-day maximum (with the exception of military leaves). Again, this policy is due for critical scrutiny by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission.

A most unusual industrial survey of more than 1,000 companies just conducted by Prentice-Hall in conjunction with the American Society for Personnel Administration, and to be released soon, reaches the conclusion that "Most current company policies of pregnancy may violate the federal law forbidding sex discrimination." While the EEOC hasn't ruled officially yet on these policies, Prentice-Hall says flatly, "All signs point to far reaching decisions which could have serious consequences" for employers.

It's such an off-beat study of civil rights that I suspect it may lead to some agonizing probing of personnel policies by

Area Counties High On Self-Help List

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

MADISON—High among the list of counties leading the state in numbers of persons trained in the medical self-help courses offered by the state office of the civil defense are those of north-eastern Wisconsin. Only seven counties have trained more than 1,000 persons in the course, four counties over 2,000, and only two counties over 3,000.

Of the Fox Valley area counties that have placed among the state leaders are Brown, with 2,431 persons trained in 21 courses held, Winnebago, 2,174 in 29 courses, and Outagamie, with 1,465 students trained in the medical classes.

Inter-Faith Dialogue Set At Kimberly

Catholic, Lutheran, Presbyterian Units Plan Series of Talks

KIMBERLY — The First Presbyterian Church will sponsor a public 3-part inter-faith dialogue among clergymen of the Catholic, Lutheran and Presbyterian faiths from 7:30 to 9 p.m. on March 13, 20 and 27 in the junior high school auditorium.

The program's purpose is to promote better understanding among various religious groups, remove prejudices and misunderstandings in the minds of church-goers and foster harmony among the different faiths.

"In short," according to Rev. John Bowe, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, "it is to help promote Christian unity through understanding."

Participants will be Rev. Frank Melchior, assistant pastor of Holy Name of Jesus Catholic Church, Kimberly; Rev. Frederic Kosanke, pastor of Mount Calvary Lutheran Church, Kimberly, and Rev. Mr. Bowe. Serving as moderator will be Ray Hamann, a member of the Presbyterian parish. Topics to be discussed will be "The Church," "Baptism," and "Marriage."

Discussions will be open to the public and since seating capacity is limited to 250, seats will be available on a first-come basis.

At each session Hamann will explain the rules and invite the audience to prepare written questions. Each clergyman will be allowed 10 minutes to express the views of his church on the evening's subject. Audience questions will be collected, followed by a 20-minute panel discussion among the clergymen. During the final half hour, the clergy will attempt to answer written questions and any live questions from the floor.

Appleton Church Plans Bible Class for Men

A breakfast Bible class for men will be conducted at 6:45 a.m. each Tuesday, beginning this Tuesday, at Faith Lutheran Church. Rev. Henry Simon, pastor, has announced.

A particular Bible topic for the Lenten season will be chosen at the first meeting.

The first discussion theme will be on next Sunday's sermon topic, "A Christian Examines Baptism."

ke. The blue and orange flag, designed by student Gary Ahrens, was financed by the Werner Witte Memorial Fund. Valerie Schilling was in charge of the Student Council committee which made the final selection. (Post-Crescent Photo)

TB Skin Tests Set For County Pupils

Association Plans Chest X-Ray Service for Outagamie Residents

Skin tests for tuberculosis will be given to first and fourth graders in most Outagamie County schools March 21, 22 and 23 and free chest x-rays to residents of the county from April 18 to May 6, officials of the Outagamie County Tuberculosis Association have announced.

Children in the county schools who want to be tested must present request slips from home. Pupils of Kaukauna schools will not be tested this year as the school system conducts a program every other year.

Mrs. Marian Freemore, county nurse, will conduct the tests in county schools. Miss Lucille Lang will be in charge at Appleton schools.

Volunteer doctors, nurses and medical assistants will do the testing. The times and places of the mobile x-ray unit visit will appear in the newspaper and be posted in various places throughout the county.

Both programs are financed by Christmas Seal contributions. A total of 2,289 pupils and adults received tuberculin tests in rural Outagamie County last year. Of these, 5 per cent were reactors. According to Appleton School reports, a total of 3,403, or 91 per cent of the Intermediate I, and grades 8 and 11 pupils were tested in 1965, with 57 reactors, constituting 5 per cent of the total.

Due to the low reactor rate in the 11th grade, the tests for that grade will be dropped this year. In preceding years the eighth grade students were tested but this group will not take the tests this year as plans call for ninth grade testing in the future, according to Miss Lang.

Cigarette Blamed For Deposit Box Fire

A lighted cigarette tossed into a night deposit box at the First National Bank early Sunday damaged an undetermined amount of money and papers, Appleton police said.

Police and firemen went to the bank after an alarm sounded at 12:15 a.m. When they arrived, smoke was pouring from the deposit box.

Firemen used a booster hose to extinguish the small blaze. Preliminary police reports indicated that six night deposit bags were damaged by water. Firemen found a cigarette butt inside the box.

Four Hurt In Two-Car Accident

Intersection Crash Hospitalizes Drivers, Youth, Year-Old Boy

Four persons, including a small child, were taken to Appleton Memorial Hospital about 5:10 p.m. Sunday following a two-car accident at N. Morrison and E. Winnebago Streets.

Taken to the hospital in Lindy's and Larry's ambulances were Vernon C. Schulze Jr., 21, 1412½ N. Durkee St., driver of one car, with face and leg lacerations and lesser cuts and bruises; his son, Bryan, 1, with lacerations, a possible fractured leg, bumps and bruises; Vicki Minor, 19, 1087 Holly Court, Neenah, a passenger in the Schulze car, with a head laceration; and Ted Parker, 18, 307 E. Winnebago St., driver of the second car, with face and leg injuries.

All four persons remained in the hospital this morning. Appleton police said the Schulze car was traveling north on Morrison Street and the Parker vehicle was eastbound on Winnebago.

The impact sent the Schulze car across a sidewalk and into a porch at the Jacob Heimermann home, 902 N. Morrison St. The porch and lawn were damaged as was a traffic control sign. Some occupants of the Schulze car were thrown from the vehicle in the mishap, witnesses said.

Police, who said that investigation into the accident is continuing, said the left side and front of the Schulze car were damaged as was the front and right side of the Parker car.

Council to Select State K of C Delegates

Delegates for the May 16 and 17 State Knights of Columbus Convention at Lake Geneva will be selected at the meeting of Queen of Peace Council at 8 p.m. Thursday at Monte Alverno Retreat Pouse.

The annual retreat is scheduled from June 24 through 26 at the retreat house. Paul Mandel has charge of reservations.

Blaze Started at Dress Shop Building

A fire that apparently started when someone threw a match or cigarette against an outside wall, brought Appleton firemen to Ida's Dress Shop, 420 W. Wisconsin Ave., at 5:45 p.m. Sunday.

A small fire was found burning in a rear wall, firemen said. Damage was minor.

Appleton Service Ends

Green Bay to be Served By Convair Airplanes

GREEN BAY — Green Bay will be served exclusively by Convair 440 airplanes for passengers starting Tuesday, when North Central Airlines will terminate service to three Wisconsin cities.

The service termination will affect Appleton, Clintonville and Ashland and is based on a Civil Aeronautics Board decision which designates Green Bay, Oshkosh and Ironwood, Mich., as regional airports. Under this decision, Appleton will be served out of Oshkosh, Clintonville out of Green Bay and Ashland out of Ironwood.

Elimination of service to 1951. The 21-passenger planes, Ashland will permit North Central to replace present DC-3 equipment with the larger 44-passenger and speedier Convair planes on its Duluth-Green Bay-Chicago round-trip flight daily. Intermediate points on this service to Green Bay starting Tuesday will include 29 flights: Ironwood, Rhineland, Manitowish and Milwaukee, daily plus the freight only flights.

Appleton Jaycees Plan Annual Awards Dinner

The 34th annual Distinguished Service Award, along with the 16th annual Distinguished Citizen Award and the "My True Security" contest awards, will be made at a dinner at 7 p.m. Tuesday at Reetz's Supper Club, James Church, chairman of the Appleton Jaycees' arrangement committee, announced today.

The Jaycees will award the DSA and DCA to citizens of the area for outstanding community service.

The top two contestants in the "My True Security" competition, will present their speeches and will be competing for top honors. Donald Day will preside over the meeting and the invocation will be given by Rev. Lyle Danen, St. Pius X Catholic Church.

Members of the awards selection committee were John Fernandez, Mayor Clarence A. Mitchell and Dennis Herling.

Judges for the "My True Security" contest will be Kenneth Sager, James Murphy and Don Smith.

Members of the Jaycee committee handling arrangements for the annual program are Church, chairman; Edward Benedict, Day, Donald DeLong, Fernandez, Louis Micheln and Charles Williams.

Hearing Set on Application; Total Capitalization $350,000

An application for a new Wells, Walter H. Wiekert and bank, to be located on W. College Avenue in the Town of Grand Chute, has been filed with the State Banking Department at Madison. It was announced today. Total capitalization will be $350,000.

To be known as the American State Bank, the new financial structure is being organized by nine local men. They are John M. Hayes, Herbert C. Holtz, Ben A. Pfefferle, Gilbert J. Relien, Raymond A. Saiberlich, Lawrence F. Schreiter, John S.

W. College Avenue and Lilas Drive, midway between the Appleton city limits and U.S. 41, Road frontage is 320 feet, depth is 185 feet.

The property is on the south side of W. College Avenue, across from Prange Budget Center.

Plan Unit Recommends Rezoning Of Newberry Street Property

Owner Proposes to Convert Old Residence To Apartments in Multiple Family Zone

Property at 2025 E. Newberry St. was recommended for rezoning by the city plan commission for the property, Stoeger re-today after the owner indicated he would convert the 60-year-old home into an apartment building.

The rezoning request of Herbert Stoeger was received by the commission a few months ago and action was held up pending the outcome of deliberations on other rezoning requests in the 13th Ward.

Stoeger said he purchased the 14-bedroom house about six years ago with intentions of remodeling it into an apartment. His family resides there.

City Planner Walter Rasmussen said multiple family usage could be placed on the property.

3-6 Apartment Units Rasmussen said it should have to be the M-1 classification which would allow for three to six apartment units.

Stoeger said the classification was agreeable with him. When some plan commission-

Federal Official Says Regional Office Processes Preliminary Letter on Pipeline Project

Appleton will soon receive a construction for water system reply from federal officials on its preliminary request for a grant to help finance the Lake Winnebago water pipeline project.

Donald Ganzer, Chicago, a member of the regional staff of the newly-created Department of Housing and Urban Development, told The Post-Crescent over the weekend that requests are now in the review stage.

Ganzer, one of several federal officials who gathered at Fond du Lac at the request of Rep. John R. Ramey (D-Fond du Lac) to outline criteria for grants, said an estimated 400 preliminary requests have been received from communities in the Midwest.

The preliminary request merely informs the federal agency the municipality is planning a major public works program and plans to apply for a federal grant should it appear there is eligibility for doing so.

"I know between 30 and 40 preliminary requests were reviewed and approved this past week," Ganzer said. However, he said Appleton's was not in the group to his knowledge.

"But I do know the request is being processed and it should be up for consideration soon," Ganzer added.

Congressional Support U.S. Senators Gaylord Nelson and William Proxmire (D-Wis.) and Rep. John Byrnes (R-Green Bay) have notified city officials they will press for approval of Appleton's request.

The three lawmakers have written to the federal agency asking to be kept abreast of developments.

Should federal authorities approve the city's preliminary request, they will send application forms here for the city to make a final request for funds.

Federal Programs Ganzer said there are federal grant programs that pay 50 per cent of the cost of the land and

Grand Chute Public Hearing Set April 12

Meeting to Concern Special Assessments For Sewer System

A public hearing on special assessments for the Butte des Morts sewer project has been set for April 12 at the Catholic Club, 4001 W. Spencer St., according to Thomas Thorson, Grand Chute town chairman.

Thorson said notices of the hearing will be sent in the near future to all property owners within the Butte des Morts Utility District.

Wednesday, Thorson and other town officials will travel to Madison to pick up a $450,000 check for payment of sewerage system mortgage revenue bonds.

The Appleton State Bank has been designated paying agent for the bonds, and will also be taking delivery of the draft for $460,000 for repayment of temporary financing and investment of the balance.

Executing the bonds for the town will be Thorson and Leslie C. Woldt, town clerk.

Appleton Youth Injured as Car Hits Pole

LITTLE CHUTE — Joseph VanderWielen, 19, 1728 S. Oneida St., Appleton, suffered a head laceration and complained of chest pains after the car he was driving west on State 96 ran off the road and hit a power pole about 2:20 a.m. today.

VanderWielen told police he was forced off the road by an oncoming car. He was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital in Larry's ambulance.

At 11:30 p.m. Sunday Mrs. Gerald Lopas, 911 Spring St., Kaukauna, suffered a cut lip when the car she was driving east on County Trunk 96 was involved in an accident with a car driven by Douglas Longsine, 27, Oconto.

The Longsine car pulled away from an arterial on Sanatorium Road into the path of the Lopas auto, police said.

YMCA Plans Swim Instructions for Men

Swimming instructions for men will be offered from 8:30 to 9:30 p.m. Monday beginning today, at the Appleton Family YMCA, Mickey McGuire, physical director has announced.

Registrations will be accepted at the opening session. Dave Unmus, water safety instructor, will teach the course.

Health Department Investigates

Woman Finds Glass in Tuna

Two cans of tuna fish packed in Japan and sold to an Appleton housewife at an area supermarket were sent to the U.S. Food and Drug Administration laboratory for tests today.

The action was taken by the Appleton Health Department after the woman opened one can and discovered what appeared to be chopped pieces of glass or plastic.

"She didn't notice the foreign matter until starting to eat the tuna," explained William Moldenhauer, a health inspector.

Grits on Teeth "When the fish started gritting on her teeth, the woman

Portable Door Opener Stolen From Vehicle

Erwin V. Hantschel, 1111 S. Jefferson St., told police Sunday night that a portable electronic garage door opener on the dashboard of his car was stolen while the car was parked near the Sacred Heart Church.

Hantschel said the device was valued at $50.

A letter of Recognition from the Wisconsin Heart Association was presented to Russell Skall, right, in appreciation of his continuing support of association projects. Martin V. Werner, left, business chairman of the Appleton Heart Fund drive made the presentation along with William Sanders, Fond du Lac area field representative of the Heart Association. All parking lot contributions are turned over to the Heart Fund through which a research fund is being established at Marquette University. The firm also turned in more than $232 to the March of Dimes through a brunch. Cooks, waitresses, and salad girls—18 employees in all—contributed three hours each, a total of $102 in wages, to serve the brunch which was attended by more than 100 persons. (Post-Crescent Photo)

Approximately 100 Kaukauna seventh graders took part in the 10th annual baby sitter clinic sponsored by the Homemakers Clubs of the city at the Kaukauna Vocational School. The children attended two Saturday sessions for training and received certificates for passing the course. Participants from

Thompson Differs With City Plan Commission

Appleton Alderman Against 2 of 3 Proposed Zoning Changes on E. Newberry Street

A southside alderman — formally received at this morning's meeting at the city hall — has now taken a public hearing for the night of March 16 on the rezoning of parcels of land on the north side of Newberry Street from residential to commercial — light manufacturing.

Ald. Glenn Thompson (13th), who in January said he was willing to abide by the decision the commission arrived at on E. Newberry Street rezoning requests, wrote he changed his mind.

Thompson's letter, written to the commission Feb. 21, was:

Neenah Phone Office Will Be Expanded

NEENAH — The Wisconsin Telephone Co. announced today a major expansion of offices at Commercial and Doty streets.

C. M. Flaherty, manager of the Neenah branch, said the project will be a 62 by 92 foot addition to the back part of the second floor whose primary use will be to house additional telephone equipment.

The project has an estimated cost of $180,000, he said.

Bids on the addition are scheduled to be let March 17, with construction to begin shortly afterwards, he said. The company hopes to be using the new spaces by January, 1967.

The architectural firm retained for the expansion is Shattuck Siewert & Associates, 324 E. Wisconsin Ave., Neenah.

Nehru's Sister Won't Appear at WSU-O Program

OSHKOSH — Wisconsin State University here has received word that Madame Krishna Nehru Hutheesing, younger sister of India's late Prime Minister Nehru, will be unable to appear here Thursday.

Madame Hutheesing was scheduled to speak on "The New Woman of India" at 8 p.m. Thursday in the campus school little theatre.

Mrs. Ruth Nelson, dean of women, received a wire today saying Madame Hutheesing is ill. University officials report that they hope to reschedule her appearance in April.

Driver Denies Topsy Charge

OSHKOSH — William A. Stephan Jr., 23, route 2, Black Creek, entered a plea of innocent of a charge of driving while under the influence of intoxicants when he appeared this morning before County Judge James Sitter. Trial was set for April 7 and Stephan was released on $150 bond. He was arrested by state police on U.S. 41 in the Town of Menasha at 10:30 p.m. Friday.

American Lutheran Church

New Congregation Will Be Located in Neenah

NEENAH — Dr. Theodore A. Ohlrogge, Appleton, president of the Northern Wisconsin district of the American Lutheran Church, has announced that a new congregation will be established here.

Four acres of land has been purchased at Tullar and Byrd Avenue on the west side of town, across from the James B. Conant Junior High School.

A letter-Seaborn, Appleton, is expected to be completed by September. The entire area will be consist of the worship area with a seating capacity of 250, parish education room, fellowship facilities, pastor's study, secretary's office and utility area.

The Old School House once used by the St. John Evangelical Lutheran Congregation, route 3, Kaukauna, Town of Woodville, has been put up for sale. The parochial school was closed in 1933 when pupils could no longer get credit for secular subjects taught in German confirmation school. The building was used for storage until recently. It will be moved off the premises once sold. (Thiel Photo)

Menasha Seeks Funds for New Library Building

MENASHA — The library board has passed a strongly worded resolution asking the common council to authorize funds for purchase of a site for a new library and for payment of planning and architectural fees, it was learned today.

The resolution was passed at a special meeting called by the board Wednesday. The press board was not notified of the meeting.

The one-page resolution asks the council to make the necessary funds available upon selection of a location by the board.

"The conditions of the library make it imperative that immediate action be taken," it states.

The board's position on what type of site is appropriate is spelled out further than ever before in the resolution.

The principal request by the board is that the site be apart from building complex in the Chute Tayco - Main streets triangle.

The scale model of this building is scheduled to be shown in the city this week, and it does not include the library.

Originally, general plans for the complex included the library. The complex included the library, so that common heating and ventilating systems could be used.

Lutheran Church, town of Woodville, after 70 years.

Arthur Buelow, route 1, Menasha, council president, says it will consider offers for the building, located just north of the parsonage on County Trunk M, three miles north of here. It must be moved from the premises.

The school was built in 1889 by Herman Franz, a carpenter member of the parish, for $365, when a need was found for a parochial school in the growing parish.

Commonly referred to by older residents as "German School," pupils were seventh and eighth graders, who received religious training in preparation for confirmation, as well as secular subjects. Sometimes as many as 25 students were taught by the minister who occasionally was assisted by his wife.

Children attended the last two years of grade school at the little white school house four days a week until 1933, when the subject of English was required in all schools by the state and pupils were unable to receive credit for the two years spent at the school unless they received the approved curriculum.

The parish voted to close the school and those who did not attend parochial school at Trinity Lutheran School, Kaukauna, received instructions three times a week from the pastor.

Church Hall. When a church hall was built in the basement of the church in 1938 to accommodate social activities, the school was used for storage.

Now with a new garage built last year, the council feels it would be practical to sell the building to avoid upkeep.

The parish will celebrate its 100th anniversary in 1988.

Kaukauna Firemen Answer Two Alarms. KAUKAUNA — Firemen were called at 11:10 a.m. Saturday to the Villa Restaurant, Second Street, when a motor on a furnace blower burned out, causing fumes in the building.

At 7:15 Saturday they answered a call to the Gale Voet residence, 304½ Dixon St., when grease under a burner on an electric stove ignited. Firemen disconnected the stove and advised the owner to clean up the grease.

100 7th Graders Complete Baby Sitter's Clinic

KAUKAUNA — Approximately 100 seventh graders completed the Homemaker Club sponsored babysitting clinic held at the Vocational and Adult Schools the past two Saturdays, thereby qualifying for certificates and having their names placed on a qualified baby sitter list.

The list is compiled at the vocational school and made available to persons desiring a qualified sitter. This was the 10th year of the program which has seen almost 1,500 children receive baby sitting training. Mothers tell what they expect of a sitter, baby sitters tell what new sitters may expect, registered nurses are utilized to explain proper care of infants and how to handle emergencies. Lessons are given in ways to help make things interesting to children and how to keep them amused as well as things to avoid giving children as it may be hazardous.

Following lectures and demonstrations, potential sitters ask questions or pose problems which might arise. A live baby was used to demonstrate bathing, changing and feeding an infant.

Soviet Space Probes Thought to be Near Cloud-Shrouded Venus

MOSCOW (AP) — Two Soviet space probes are supposed to be nearing Venus. The first may pass the cloud-draped planet within the next few days, perhaps Tuesday.

The second, launched into an orbit around the sun four days after the first, is due near Venus about Saturday.

The Soviets have made no official announcements on the progress of the two Venus probes since Dec. 24 when they were about a third of the way to Venus.

FACSIMILE BALLOT NOTICE FOR COUNTY BOARD OF SUPERVISOR PRIMARY ELECTION

March 8, 1966

STATE OF WISCONSIN } SS Office of County Clerk
OUTAGAMIE COUNTY }

To the Electors of Outagamie County:

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that an election is to be held in certain of the several towns, wards, villages and election districts of Outagamie County, Wisconsin, on the 8th day of March A.D., 1966, at which the officers named below are to be chosen. The names of the candidates whose nominations have been filed in this office, are given under the title of the office, in the sample below:

Information to Voters

The following instructions are given for the information and guidance of voters.

A voter upon entering the polling place and giving his name and residence will receive a ballot from the ballot clerk which must have indorsed thereon the names or initials of both ballot clerks, and no other ballot can be used. Upon receiving his ballot, the voter must retire alone to a booth or compartment and prepare the same for voting. A ballot clerk may inform the voter as to the proper manner of marking his ballot, but he must not advise or indicate in any manner whom to vote for.

At a non-partisan primary election, the voter shall place a cross or other mark in the square at the right of the name of the candidate for whom he intends to vote, or by inserting or writing in the name of any other candidate.

The ballot should not be marked in any other manner. If the ballot be spoiled, it must be returned to the ballot clerk, who must issue another in its stead, but not more than three in all shall be issued to any one voter. Five minutes' time is allowed in booth to mark ballot. Unofficial ballots or memorandum to assist the voter in marking his ballot can be taken into the booth, and may be used to copy from. The ballot must not be shown so that any person can see how it has been marked by the voter.

After it is marked it should be folded so that the inside cannot be seen, but so that the printed endorsements and signatures of the ballot clerks on the outside may be seen. Then the voter should pass out of the booth or compartment, give his name to the inspector in charge of the ballot box, hand him his ballot to be placed in the box, and pass out of the voting place.

A voter, who declares to the presiding officer that he is unable to read, or that by reason of physical disability he is unable to mark his ballot, can have assistance of two election officers in marking same, to be chosen by the voter; and if he declares that he is visually handicapped, he may have anyone assist him in marking his ballot or operating a voting machine. The presiding officer may administer an oath in his discretion, as to such person's disability.

The following is a facsimile of the official ballot:

Race Hits Home Stretch; Wisconsin Fuels Northwestern

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Ohio State	4	7	.364
Wisconsin	3	8	.273
Indiana	3	8	.273
Purdue	3	8	.273

Michigan Wolverines might be leading the Big Ten basketball race by one game with three games remaining but nobody can blame Coach Dave Strack and his charges if they are looking around for a little help.

Michigan pounded Purdue 105-85 Saturday but couldn't stretch its conference lead as Michigan State hung on tenaciously with a 69-63 victory over Indiana.

Going into the stretch, Michigan has home dates with Iowa tonight and Northwestern Saturday before colliding in the season finale at Michigan State.

Michigan State, meanwhile, has road engagements at Ohio State tonight and at Indiana Saturday before squaring off with Michigan March 7.

It will not be easy for either team to win twice before their meeting March 7. Although Michigan is at home, the Wolverines take on two of the hottest teams in the league.

Iowa has won four straight, including an 80-70 triumph over Wisconsin Saturday. Northwestern has captured its last five conference games, including Saturday's narrow 78-77 victory over Ohio State.

In Saturday's only other game, Minnesota edged Illinois 94-92.

Rounding out tonight's schedule, Minnesota will be at Indiana, Northwestern at Wisconsin and Purdue at Illinois.

Trial Recessed In State Suit Against Braves

MILWAUKEE (AP)—The trial of Wisconsin's antitrust suit against the National League, opened today before Circuit Judge Elmer W. Roller, and recessed almost immediately for marking of additional exhibits.

First move by counsel for baseball, as the climactic phase of Milwaukee's fight to stay alive as a major league city, was an attempt to get before the court rulings by Georgia and Texas judges who have ordered the Braves to play this season in Atlanta.

The league and its 10 member clubs were represented by eight attorneys, headed by Louis Carroll and Bowie Kuhn, Atty. Gen. Bronson C. LaFollette, who brought the action, and his special counsel, Willard Stafford, led the state team of nine.

Bosox Have Trouble in Florida

Earl Wilson Refused Service

WINTER HAVEN, Fla. (AP)—The full squad hasn't arrived at the new Boston Red Sox spring training quarters yet but some of the gloss already has been rubbed off.

Negro pitcher Earl Wilson complained Sunday that he was refused service at two Winter Haven establishments and proposed that he be allowed to train in California.

"If this thing happens again," Boston's ace right-hander said, "I might pack my bags and leave."

He said, "I'd like to go to California for spring training and join the club in Boston. I thought things were different down here. At least that's what they tell you. I think I'd rather be in Mississippi. There you know you're not wanted."

The Red Sox also were miffed, declaring one cafe off limits to all Boston players.

Vice President Dick O'Connell issued a statement supporting Manager Billy Herman's decree that "any place which is not suitable for one of our players is in turn unsuitable for all of our players."

Wilson said he and pitchers Dennis Bennett and Dave Morehead were playing pool when they retired to a place across the street for a beer shortly after 9 p.m. He said all three left when the bartender told him, "I can't serve you in here."

Wilson said he went alone to another place to see if racial segregation was widespread and he was not allowed to enter.

The Red Sox resumed training in Florida this season after eight years in Scottsdale, Ariz. The Red Sox signed a 10-year lease for the Winter Haven facilities and O'Connell said he was assured there would be no racial difficulties.

Lourdes Nips Xavier, 56-55 To Win Regional Crown

Walter Goal Tops Hawks In Final :06

By JOHN L. PAUSTIAN

MENASHA—Oshkosh Lourdes' Randy Walter starred in a dramatic basketball version of "The Agony and the Ecstasy" here Sunday night.

Walter, a junior guard, propelled a 20-foot shot through the hoop with six seconds remaining to give Lourdes High School

Friday Afternoon
Eau Claire Regis (18-4) vs Milwaukee Don Bosco (15-7)
Marshfield Columbus (13-8) vs Oshkosh Lourdes (13-8)

Friday Night
Madison Edgewood (17-5) vs Racine St. Catherine (19-3)
Green Bay Premontre (7-14) vs Milwaukee Messmer (19-3)

a 56-55 victory over Appleton Xavier in a high-tension Region 5 championship game.

For the ecstatic Knights, it meant:

(1) Their first trip to the state Catholic tournament in history.

(2) Their first victory over Xavier in basketball or football since both became 4-year schools five annus ago.

The Hawks had victimized Lourdes 17 straight times—including two basketball decisions this season—in the athletic series.

For the Hawks eyeing their fifth straight state-tourney trip, the agony lay in missing their last three free throws of the game and in failing to hold a 55-54 lead which Mike Heide-man's corner shot had given them with 28 seconds left. Then, after Walter's bulls-eye, Xavier failed to attract the officials' attention in a frantic effort to call time out. The Hawks finally succeeded in getting "time," but only 2 seconds remained. A final desperation shot missed its mark.

7 Straight Wins
"Red" Kemp, coached Lourdes, which stormed down the late-season conference stretch and regional tournament trail for seven straight wins, meets Marshfield Columbus in the Milwaukee arena at 3.30 p.m. Friday. Both have 13-8 records.

It was the heart-breaking end to a streak-breaking season for the "Torchy" Clark-coached Hawks (18-3). Previous losses to Chicago St. Patrick and Fond du Lac Springs halted long home-floor and conference skeins, respectively. Last night's defeat ended an overall chain of six wins, a "road" streak of 10 wins and a regional-tourney streak of nine successive triumphs over a 3-year period.

Walter's biggest basket of his career effected the 18th and final lead exchange of the second half—16 minutes of non-stop excitement which left the overflow crowd limp.

Xavier's Dan Hardy scored the first basket of the game.

Premontre Tips Marinette '5' In 2 Overtimes

Cadets Earn Berth In State Tourney With 54-53 Victory

MARINETTE—Premontre is king of the hill in region four.

The Cadets icily met the slow down tactics of Marinette Central here Sunday, and beat the Cavaliers at their own game, 54-

53, in two overtimes to snare the championship and join seven other elite clubs in the state Catholic tournament.

The game was knotted after regular time, 46-46. At the start of the first overtime, Premontre missed a shot, then Central, a free throw. The Cadets took a brief lead on Steve Young's tip-in but moments later the score was knotted again at 48-48 on Rocky Sequin's base line driver.

Rocky Slawinski put the Cavaliers in the lead, 50-48, on a fast break lay-up but seconds later

John Dickey fought his way to the basket to even the count again.

Central's Phil Peanosky popped in a gift toss with 41 left and Central went into its double-and triple-teaming press. Premontre broke it and again Dickey, a 6-5 junior, battled his way to a lay-up.

With only 17 seconds left, Marinette charged in for one last shot. Peanosky missed, grabbed his own rebound and shuffled it off to Sequin who was fouled with one second remaining on the clock.

He hit on the first—to tie the tally at 52-52... then missed the second to send the game into a second overtime.

This extra three minutes was played at a slower pace. Central took the tip-off and promptly killed 2:23. A double-dribble violation on Central gave the Cadets possession and Craig Johansen—led by Young—

Messmer '5' Gains State Meet Spot

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Milwaukee Messmer, Racine St. Catherine and Eau Claire Regis lead eight teams into the finals of the 57th annual Wisconsin Catholic high school basketball tournament Friday with Appleton Xavier watching from the sidelines for the first time in the school's history.

Oshkosh Lourdes upset Xavier 56-55 Sunday night in the finale of the Menasha regional on Randy Walter's 20-foot jump shot with six seconds to go. Xavier ranked No. 9 in the state, was the highest rated team in the "Big Ten" poll playing in the parochial meet.

Milwaukee Messmer, which earlier knocked off 10th-ranked Milwaukee Pius, and Racine St. Catherine will take the best records into the finals at 19-3. Eau Claire Regis is 18-4.

Complete Field
Madison Edgewood, Milwaukee Don Bosco, Marshfield Columbus and Green Bay Premontre complete the field.

Messmer and Regis are both in the upper bracket. St. Catherine faces its chief foe in the lower bracket, Madison Edgewood 17-5, in the opening round Friday night.

Messmer, led by John Johnson of New London had 583 to son with 32 points, erased a 19-point take the top two spots in Class B singles. Leaders remained the same in Class C and D singles and C, D, and E team categories with competition continuing through May 22.

Dog House of Oconto rolled 2,344 to knock Fermanich Fuel of Antigo out of first place in the Class B team division by a 37-pin margin.

Alice Dordel and Patricia Schleizer of Stevens Point had 1,082 in Class B doubles to take the lead from Geraldine Widder and Delores Heindrenreiter of Sheboygan Falls, who rolled 1,054 earlier.

The 1,011 score of Shirley Pelkey and Helen Nelson of New London boosted them into first in Class C doubles, 23 pins ahead of Maxine Howard and Louise Allen of Milwaukee.

Marty Marotz and Eldora Allhiser of Shawano rolled 1,069 for third place in Class A doubles. Alvina Fry and Barbara Piggott of Oregon kept the lead with 1,118, followed by Rosy Tenneson and Joan Werner of Madison.

144 Pros in Miller Open

Pro Amateur Event Kicks Off Tourney On Tuesday Night

MILWAUKEE (AP)—A purse of $70,000, richest booty of any open on the pro bowling circuit, will attract 144 pursuers as the five-day Miller Open starts Tuesday.

Dick Weber of St. Louis, the cash winner on the tour in 1965 and leading moneymaker again this year at $27,000, held the field of entrants.

A $10,000 pro-am meet is slated Tuesday with the regular meet starting Wednesday. The winner Saturday will get a $10,000 slice of the $60,000 pot for pro play.

Weber is joined in the field day for a three-round total of 212.

With gusts up to 30 miles an hour on the 6,896-yard course, Freddie Haas of New Orleans was the only other golfer among 108 to break par.

He carded 71 for a 214 total of Champions at Akron, Ohio, and tie for second spot with E.J. (Dutch) Harrison of Ellenville, winners, has a bigger purse than the Miller Open.

Coleman Wins Wrestling Title

Dick Balthazor, of Wittenberg, Wins Crown at 138

MADISON (AP) — Coleman High School continues its hammerlock on Wisconsin high school wrestling.

Coleman pinned down its fifth WIAA title in seven years Saturday with 165-pound champion Allen Mursau supplying most of the muscle.

Mursau supplied the winning points by beating Brian Sullivan of Racine Horlick, 2-1, in overtime in the final round of the 165-pound division.

Second place in the annual tournament went to Mineral Point with 28 points, six points behind Coleman. New Berlin was third with 25 and Stoughton fourth with 24.

Defending champion Madison West finished in a tie for 20th. Three of the individual titlists were repeaters.

Mike Medchill of Mineral Point, who won the 95-pound crown a year ago, moved up to the 103-pound class and whipped Darroll Mazzari of New Berlin.

Jack Stone regained 112-pound laurels with a decision over Jim Grimm of Mineral Point.

Ted Stephens of New Richmond defended his 120-pound title with a victory over Dale Borchardt of Hartland.

The heavyweight title went to Bob Olson of Superior, who won all-state football honors last fall. The big back outpointed Roger Braker of Menomonie.

Final results:

95 Pounds Steve Wuetrick, Monroe, pinned Frank Kinanteder, New Berlin, 5-03.

103 Pounds Mike Medchill, Mineral Point, defeated Darroll Mazzari, New Berlin, 6-0.

112 Pounds Jack Stone, Berlin, defeated Jim Grimm, Mineral Point, 2-0.

127 Pounds Allan Krueger, Kenosha, defeated Larry Aaberg, Stoughton, 6-4, overtime.

133 Pounds Lincoln Saito, Eau Claire Memorial, defeated Bob Pomplum, Portage, 2-1.

138 Pounds Dick Balthazor, Wittenberg, defeated Bob Lorenz, Mishicot, 3-2, overtime.

145 Pounds Lud Kroner, Oconomowoc, defeated George Wilson, Milwaukee King, 6-2.

165 Pounds Allen Mursau, Coleman, defeated Brian Sullivan, Racine Horlick, 2-1, overtime.

180 Pounds Russ Hellickson, Stoughton, pinned Dick Melka, West Allis Hale, 4-56.

Heavyweight Bob Olson, Superior, defeated Roger Braker, Menomonie, 3-0.

2,500 Watch Annual Meet

Bergh Wins Senior Ski Jump at Iola

IOLA — Although delayed for Billy Olson, also of Eau Claire two weeks due to unfavorable in 1963. Bergh held the record weather conditions, the Eighth of 147 feet at Iola until he was Annual USSA sanctioned ski topped by Olson.

Along with receiving the trophy for the longest jump, Bergh was also presented with the awards banquet following the meet. Bergh was jumping in class A.

For the event, 69 riders from 12 ski clubs in three states exhibited their ski jumping skills. The longest jump of the day was turned in by an Eau Claire rider, Larry Bergh. His jump of 140 feet, although the longest of his division with jumps of 126 the day failed to come close to and 124 feet for a total of 138.5 the hill record of 155 feet set by points. The first place rider in the Junior Class was Rick Phillips, another Eau Claire jumper who had rides of 137 and 132 feet for 147.3 points. The class B division saw Peter Mikkelsen, Beloit, jumps of 123 and 125 for 128.9 points; third, Keith Zuehl, Eau Claire, jumps of 122 and 126 feet for 137.9 points, and 118 for 127.7 points.

Excellent Condition The hill, located five miles north of Iola, was in excellent condition for Sunday's meet, however, because of warm weather, the hill was not classed as fast, as it has been in previous years. By being slowed down slightly by wet snow, the skiers were unable to get the distance they are accustomed to at Iola.

Originally the meet had been set for Feb. 13 but rain washed all the snow off the scaffold and there was a three foot deep lake at the bottom of the hill. To get the hill in condition a second time, members of the Iola Winter Sports Club and winter carnival committee used an irrigation pump to clear the lake away from the bottom of the hill and hauled tons of snow from Sunset Lake about four miles away.

Last year three skiers were injured on the hard-packed landing of the hill but this year the meet was injury free as each of the 69 riders made two jumps.

Clubs participating in the meet were from Madison, Wisconsin Rapids, Milwaukee, Eau Claire, Beloit, Racine, Iola, Chicago, Westby, Wanamingo, Minn., St. Paul, Minn. and Rockford, Ill.

Second and third place winners of each event were: Class A, second, Arne Oby, Norge Ski Club Chicago, jumps of 130 and 21 and 20 for the P-C.

WIAA Tourney to Open

River Falls '5' Plays Tonight

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Once - beaten River Falls will be the first major power to see action as the 51st annual Wisconsin high school basketball tournament bursts into play with two games tonight and 165 more Tuesday night.

A field of 424 public schools will start the three - week sudden-death derby that will have only one survivor when it ends March 19 in Madison. Only 64 teams will be left after five nights of regional and sub-regional play this week.

Seven schools take perfect regular season records into the tournament; that has been won by undefeated teams three of the last four years. Top-ranked Madison East (18-0) and No. 2 Green Bay West (18-0) are co-favorites.

River Falls (17-1) faces Baldwin, Woodville and Elmwood plays Spring Valley in the first sub-regional games tonight.

Set the Stage Regional championships at 64 sites Saturday night and 32 sub-regional games a week from Tuesday will set the stage for the sectional meets to slice the number of survivors to eight a week from Saturday.

Surveying the sectional areas: BELOIT — The field includes the last two champions and the top-ranked team this year.

No. 1 Madison East opens against Janesville (8-10) Friday night in the Purgolders' own regional with five-time champion Beloit (9-9) also in the field. No. 4 Monona Grove (16-2) meets Madison Central (5-12) in the Silver Eagles' regional the same night.

Defending champion Monroe (11-7) has one of the first-night byes in the six-team Verona regional. Dodgeville (14 - 3), the 1964 winner is host to one of the toughest sub-regionals in the state with the Dodgers facing Lancaster (15-2) Tuesday night and Plattville (16-1) lurking in the opposite bracket.

BROOKFIELD — Two 1965 state finalists, Brookfield Central (15-3) and Wauwatosa East (13-5), are tossed in the same six - team Wauwatosa regional where none of the entrants has a losing record. The six include Milwaukee Washington (14 - 4) and Milwaukee North (12 - 6).

Wauwatosa East's foe Tuesday night, Fond du Lac (12-6), winner of the first WIAA meet in 1916, faces Sheboygan South (11 - 7) Friday night at Sheboygan New Holstein (15-0). No. 7 in the state, starts against Kiel Tuesday night while Stockbridge (17-0) meets Elkhart Lake on a one of them will fall immediately as they clash Friday night the two unbeaten teams Saturday in the Kimberly regional.

River Falls '5' Plays Tonight

LA CROSSE—No. 5 Baraboo (16-1) and Portage (15-2) are tossed into the Sauk Prairie sub-regional.

Alma (15-0) top-rated in the state's "Little Ten" starts against Plum City (11-7) Tuesday night and has only other small schools in its path toward a second straight La Crosse sectional appearance.

OSHKOSH — Appleton (12-5) and Oshkosh (12-4) meet in the Neenah regional Friday night in a game that could decide the entire sectional.

Four small school powers — Markesan (16 - 1), Winneconne (16-2), Omro (14-4) and Westfield (14-4)—are all grouped in the five - team Omro regional. Beaver Dam (13-5) is the only large school with an impressive record to rival the Appleton-Oshkosh winner.

RACINE — No. 3 Milwaukee Lincoln (17-1), seeking its fourth state title in the last eight years, starts Friday against Milwaukee West (3-15) at Waukesha West Allis Hale (15-3) could stand astride Lincoln's path at the sub-sectional level.

Racine Horlick (13-4), opening against Kenosha Bradford (11-7) Friday, was runnerup to Madison East in the Big Eight, but lost to Lincoln by 32 points in December.

SPOONER — Eau Claire Memorial (14 - 4), runnerup last year, starts against Eau Claire North (12-6), while Cumberland (13-3), third in 1965, faces 1950 champion St. Croix Falls (12-6), back Bobby Koch with 24 last small team to take the points, played control ball and title, in Tuesday night games.

Barron (17-1) and River Falls squeaker over Stevens Point Pacelli (14-6) at Wisconsin Rapids major schools, but Superior (10-6) could also be troublesome.

Each team scored only once in the last period as a basket in the Eau Claire winner at by Koch gave Columbus its 36 - 35 command with 3½ minutes left. Pacelli missed two shots that might have won, including a layup booted by 6-foot-6 center Lee Steffanus with two seconds to go.

Five of the finalists — Messmer, Lourdes, Columbus, Don Bosco and Premontré—are seeking their first titles in the championships Friday through Sunday at the Milwaukee Arena.

Edgewood has won four crowns, the last one in 1962. St. Catherine, the 1961 champion (11-6) could collide at Wisconsin Rapids Friday night.

Marie Mulder Turns Tables On Russian Foe in 880 Run

By GORDON BEARD Associated Press Sports Writer BALTIMORE (AP) — If Marie Mulder is sweet 16 and never been kissed, it's not without reason. She runs too fast for most boys to catch.

Actually, Marie should have little trouble in the dating department. She's the dark-haired cutie who attracts whistles as well as applause when she dons a track suit.

As a 15-year-old, Marie went to Russia on the U.S. national team last summer and finished less than one second behind the Soviet veteran, Tamara Dmitriyeva, in the 800-meter run.

Tamara edged Marie twice more at 880 yards on the current indoor circuit at Los Angeles and New York, but the American charmer finally turned the tables Saturday night in the Sunpapers All-Eastern Indoor Games.

With a record All-Eastern crowd of 8,867 giving her the biggest cheer of the night, Miss Mulder won the 880 in 2:13.8, beating Nagy Szabo of Hungary by a couple of yards, with Miss Dmitriyeva another stride back in third place.

Just before the start of the race, Marie heard that Tamara and the other seven touring pole. Both failed at 16 feet after Russians were cutting short their America stay and return.

ing home instead of competing in the National AAU Indoor Championships next weekend at Albuquerque, N.M.

"So I knew I had to get her this time, or wait until next summer's dual meet," Miss Mulder said.

The pace at the start was slower than Marie expected, so she decided to "take the lead and run my race."

Miss Mulder was especially satisfied since her victory followed a fourth-place finish in Toronto on Friday night.

"Running two nights in a row is not as hard as I expected," she said. "And now that I've done it, I should have more confidence next time."

Marie's victory Saturday was timely, since the Russians won five events and set three records including a pole vault of 16 feet, 6 inches by Gennady Bliznyetsov, and Hungary's Vilmos Varju won the shot put.

American standouts included Jim Greile in the mile, 4:01.6; Richmond Flowers in the 60-yard high hurdles, 6.9 seconds; and Bill Gaines in the 60-yard dash at 6 seconds flat.

John Pennel and Bob Seagren faltered badly in the pole vault with Seagren using a borrowed and the other seven touring pole. Both failed at 16 feet after Russians were cutting short their America stay and return.

SPECIAL LIMITED ENROLLMENT! EXPIRES MIDNIGHT, MARCH 27, 1966

Now...for people over 40 only—

A board of doctors has created a remarkable new health plan just for you!

This valuable protection for the “danger years” ahead pays extra cash direct to you when you are hospitalized and—for the very first time—here is a Plan that actually pays money to help keep you well!

If you are over 40, you can qualify for the new 40-PLUS BENEFIT PLAN, if you mail your Enrollment no later than Midnight, March 27, 1966—and you can enroll for only $1.00!

This, surely, is among the greatest values, as well as the most unusual health insurance program, ever offered to men and women over 40! Think of it. Simply by the stroke of your pen, you can now get the valuable “extra” health protection you’ve wanted at the very time when you are most apt to need it...all at a cost substantially less than you might expect!

How the 40-PLUS BENEFIT PLAN Differs from Ordinary Health Insurance

The 40-PLUS Benefit Plan has been created by an insurance company run by doctors, the Physicians Mutual Insurance Company, which has specialized in health and accident protection for physicians, surgeons and dentists exclusively for more than 60 years. Now this fine old “doctors company” offers a wonderful new health plan to men and women over 40! And you may enroll during this Limited Enrollment Period—without having to see a company representative or without any red tape whatsoever!

In short, if you are 40 or over, you can now qualify for 40-PLUS. No other qualifications are required—provided you apply during this Limited Enrollment Period.

How 40-PLUS Helps Your Doctor Keep You Well

As you know, and as your doctor will tell you, people who have regular physical examinations have a better chance to stay well and live longer. For example, doctors know that if cancer is discovered in its early stages there is a much better chance of curing it. To encourage you to see your doctor regularly, at the end of each year, 40-PLUS will pay up to $10 to help pay the cost of a routine physical check-up. You see your own doctor any time within 60 days after you receive your notice—but only if you want to.

The doctors at Physicians Mutual also realize that you could be struck down by an accident or a sudden illness no matter how often you see your doctor or how careful you are. During the dangerous “after 40” years, particularly, you may require hospitalization at any time. That’s why the program also includes valuable cash benefits.

How the Plan “Pays Off” in Time of Need

Here’s how this valuable protection “pays off” in your time of need: $100 a week ($14.28 a day) will be paid directly to you from the very first day of hospital confinement, for as long as 52 weeks, each time you are hospitalized for a new sickness or accident! You get paid for every day you are hospitalized, even if you are in the hospital for only a single day—up to as much as $5200 for a full year! And even if you are hospitalized for a full year and have received your full $5200 in benefits, if you should be so unfortunate as to be hospitalized again—you are still entitled to all benefits all over again, as long as you have been out of the hospital for at least six months between hospital confinements.

Important: Here is a real “plus” for you if you have been told you are uninsurable. Even if you have suffered from chronic ailments in the past, the kinds of conditions that come back again and again or are likely to recur, 40-PLUS will cover you for these pre-existing conditions after your policy has been continuously in force for two years.

Whether or not you have had a chronic ailment, 40-PLUS will cover you for any new accident or sickness. As soon as your policy is in force, accidents are covered immediately. After your policy is 30 days old, you are covered for sicknesses which begin thereafter. There are only a few usual exceptions: war, military service, mental disorder, confinement in a nursing home or convalescent unit of a hospital, or any government hospital (Federal, state, etc.), or if something happens “on-the-job” and is covered by Workmen’s Compensation or Employers Liability Laws.

40-PLUS and the “Danger Years”

Of course, like most people over 40, you probably have some hospital insurance. But, as everyone knows, even the most complete hospital insurance simply doesn’t cover everything. The fact is, you need more protection.

But now that you’re over 40, now that you’ve entered the “danger years,” it may be difficult to obtain the extra protection you need at a price you can afford—or, because of the condition of your health, you may not be able to obtain it at any price!

That’s why the new 40-PLUS Benefit Plan is so important to you—it brings you the hard-to-obtain “over 40” protection you need, at remarkably low rates. For only pennies a day, 40-PLUS will give you cash to help fill the “financial gap” probably not covered by your present health insurance.

And remember this—even if your basic hospital expenses are covered by your present insurance—you’ll still need help with all your regular household expenses!

Think for a moment—if you’re a husband, father and breadwinner, and you’re suddenly hospitalized, what happens? Your income stops. Your expenses go up. Even if you have some kind of “salary insurance,” it probably won’t come close to replacing your full-time pay. It’s quite likely that you and your family will never fully recover the tremendous financial loss!

If you’re a wife, mother and homemaker, and are suddenly hospitalized, what happens? Who will look after your family, see that the children get hot meals, are properly clothed? Who will do the laundry, the marketing, the cleaning? Your husband may lose time from his job...friends and relatives may have to help out temporarily...you may even have to hire full-time domestic help! Everything will be upset. Debts may be incurred, savings may be lost—worse still, peace of mind may be shattered, and even recovery can be seriously delayed!

But with the exclusive two-way protection 40-PLUS offers, you can now stop worrying.

Actually, important as all of these benefits are, they are far from the only advantages you can now enjoy...if you act before the enrollment deadline.

For example:

Benefits Tax-Free—Can’t Be Reduced

For as long as you live and continue to pay your premiums, we will never cancel or refuse to renew your policy for health reasons—and we guarantee that we will never cancel, modify or terminate your policy unless we decline renewal on all policies of this type in your entire state. Furthermore, your benefits will never be reduced—and all your benefits are tax-free!

Carry Any Other Insurance You Want

Yes, the 40-PLUS Benefit Plan pays you in addition to any other health insurance you carry, whether individual or group!

Surprisingly Low Cost

With these wonderful “keep well” and “get better” benefits, you might expect 40-PLUS to cost much more than other health plans—but, in fact, it costs considerably less than you might expect! Only $3.95 a month from age 40 through age 64—only $6.95 a month when you are 65 or over—no additional premiums can ever be assessed—and, regardless of your age, your first month is only $1.00!

A Respected Company

Equally important as the exceptional value, the low cost, the ease of enrollment and the high benefits offered by the 40-PLUS BENEFIT PLAN...is this vital fact: Your policy is backed by the resources, integrity and reputation of the Physicians Mutual Insurance Company, “the doctors company,” specializing in health and accident protection for physicians, surgeons and dentists all across America, for more than 60 years. Doctors right in your own community know about us and may actually be insured by Physicians Mutual. (If this is the first you have heard of Physicians Mutual, it’s probably because this is one of the very few times Physicians Mutual has made its health insurance protection available to the general public.) Serving policyholders throughout the United States direct by mail, Physicians Mutual has its headquarters in Omaha, Nebraska, and is licensed and incorporated in that state. Its Board of Directors is composed entirely of respected members of the medical, dental and insurance professions.

How Can We Do It?

At this point, you may be asking yourself, “How can they offer so much for so little?” The question is a sensible one; but the answer makes good sense, too: By encouraging our members to see their doctors for routine check-ups each year...we hope to prevent the need for hospitalization in the case of a number of policy holders. This, naturally, should effect substantial savings—savings we share with you in the form of lower premiums.

In addition, we have lower sales costs. 40-PLUS is a mass enrollment plan. And all business is conducted directly between you and the company by mail. No salesmen are used. There are no costly investigations or any extra fees for you to pay. It all adds up to real savings we share with you by giving you top protection at lower cost.

Easy to Enroll—No Red Tape—No Salesman Will Call!

Simply fill out the short Enrollment below and mail it with $1.00 for your first month’s coverage! We will issue your 40-PLUS Benefit Policy (Form P302 series) immediately—the same day your Enrollment is received. This automatically puts the policy in force. Along with your policy, you will receive a simple, easy-to-use Claim Form—should you at any time need your benefits, you can be sure that your claim will be given “top priority” treatment. In addition, we’ll see to it that you receive special forms at the end of each year to take to your doctor for your examination.

When you receive your policy, you’ll see that it is direct, honest, easy-to-understand. But—and please note this carefully—if for any reason you decide you don’t want your policy, you may return it in 10 days and we will promptly refund your dollar!

Don’t Wait Until the Deadline to Enroll!

Remember the sooner we receive your Enrollment, the sooner 40-PLUS will cover you! So it’s best you fill out and return your Enrollment now, before the deadline date arrives. (Two Enrollments are provided below so that husbands and wives may both enroll. In that case, be sure to enclose $1.00 for each Enrollment.)

So, won’t you take the necessary minute or two—today—and return your Enrollment together with the dollar required to put it into effect? Your Enrollment must be postmarked before midnight of March 27, 1966, or it cannot be accepted. Better mail your Enrollment today.

17 Important Questions Answered

ABOUT THE NEW 40-PLUS BENEFIT PLAN

The New Plan That Pays You Cash When You Are Hospitalized—Plus “Extra” Benefits To Help Keep You Well

- 1. What is the 40-PLUS BENEFIT PLAN?
It is a new health insurance plan for people over 40 only—that pays an extra income direct to you when you are hospitalized and, in addition, provides a physical examination benefit each year to help your doctor keep you well.
- 2. Why do I need the 40-PLUS BENEFIT PLAN in addition to my regular health insurance?
Probably your present hospital insurance won’t cover all your hospital expenses. But even if it does, you will still need help to pay all your regular household expenses while you are hospitalized.
- 3. Can I collect even though I carry other health insurance?
Yes. 40-PLUS pays you in addition to any health insurance you carry, whether group or individual.
- 4. Is there a lot of red tape to qualify?
No. The only qualification is that you must be over 40—even senior citizens over 65 are welcome.
- 5. If I become hospitalized, when do my benefits begin?
$100 a week ($14.28 a day) will be paid directly to you from the very first day of hospital confinement.
- 6. How long will I be paid?
For as long as 52 weeks (as much as $5200.00) while you are hospitalized for each new sickness or accident. If the full 52 weeks has been used, and the same condition recurs, a new 52-week period will be provided if there has been an interval of 6 months between hospital confinement.
- 7. When does my policy go into force?
It becomes effective on the date your Enrollment is received. Accidents are covered on that date. After your policy has been in force for 30 days, you are covered for sicknesses which begin thereafter.
- 8. What if I have had a health problem that may occur again?
Pre-existing conditions are covered after your policy has been continuously in force for two years.
- 9. What isn’t covered?
Only a few exceptions: war, military service, mental disorder, and confinement in any government hospital or if covered by Workmen’s Compensation or Employers Liability Laws.
- 10. Does 40-PLUS pay in any hospital?
You will be covered in any public or private hospital anywhere in the world—except nursing homes, convalescent units of hospitals, and government hospitals (Federal, state, etc.).
- 11. Can I drop out any time? Can you drop me?
No matter how many claims you make or how much you collect, we will never cancel or refuse to renew your policy for health reasons—for as long as you live. We guarantee that we will never cancel, modify or terminate your policy unless we decline renewal on all policies of this type in your entire state. You, of course, can drop your policy on any renewal date.
- 12. Will my claims be handled promptly?
Yes. With your policy, you will receive a simple, easy-to-use Claim Form. Your claims will be processed quickly and your checks will be sent directly to you.
- 13. How do I get my “physical” each year?
40-PLUS actually pays your own doctor up to $10 annually toward your routine physical examination (but only if you want it). You receive special forms at the end of each year to take to your doctor, so that he can give you your check-up within 60 days.
- 14. Why are the premiums so low?
Because this is a mass enrollment plan—and no salesmen are used—our volume is higher and our sales cost are lower.
- 15. How much does my first month cost?
Only $1.00, regardless of age. After your first month, you pay only $3.95 a month until age 65; only $6.95 a month from age 65 and over.
- 16. Why is there a “deadline” date?
In order to offer the Plan without a health questionnaire and still maintain our low rate, we can only make the Plan available on this basis during a limited enrollment period. The deadline date is firm—we cannot accept your Enrollment unless postmarked on or before that date.
- 17. Why should I enroll right now?
Because an unexpected sickness or accident could strike without warning—and you will not be covered until your policy is in force. Remember, if for any reason you change your mind, you may return your policy within 10 days and your $1.00 will be refunded immediately.

Fill out and mail Enrollment, with $1.00, to Physicians Mutual Insurance Company, 115 South 42nd Street, Omaha, Nebraska 68131. BE SURE TO ENCLOSE $1 FOR EACH ENROLLMENT.

U. S. Marines in Battle With Key Viet Cong Troops

Leatherneck Losses Light in Fight Near Viet Nam Border

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—Three companies of U.S. Marines lifted into action by helicopter battled a Viet Cong main-force unit today 55 miles from the North Viet Nam border.

The fight still raged at nightfall after more than six hours of shooting. A Marine spokesman at Da Nang said 40 Communists were killed, against light Leatherneck losses. The Marines also captured 40 weapons, including one crew-served piece of equipment.

'Gemini 9' Astronauts Die In St. Louis Plane Crash

Civilian Elliot See Jr. and Capt. Charles Bassett Were Set for Summer Mission

SPACE CENTER, Houston, of Georgetown, Ohio; and three Tex. (AP) — Astronauts Elliot See Jr. and Charles A. Bassett II, the primary crew for the Gemini 9 space flight scheduled this summer, were killed today in a St. Louis plane crash.

The identifications were announced at the Manned Spacecraft Center, the training base for astronauts, about an hour and a half after the astronauts' T38 jet trainer crashed while making an instrument landing in a light fog at the McDonnell Aircraft Corp. plant.

McDonnell builds the Gemini spacecraft. Astronauts assigned to the two-man space flight spend considerable time in St. Louis for training purposes.

See, 38, a civilian, was selected in the second group of astronauts selected in 1962. A native of Dallas, Tex., he was a Navy pilot from 1953 through 1956.

Bassett, 34, an Air Force captain, was a native of Dayton, Ohio, but was a graduate of Texas Technological College at Lubbock. He was in the third group of astronauts named in 1963.

See is survived by his widow, the former Marilyn J. Denahy.

Space Weather Network Ready

ESSA 2 Launching Puts Into Operation First Orbital System

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — ESSA 2, a mechanical meteorologist designed to snap and transmit cloud and storm pattern photos almost in the twinkling of its camera eyes, soared into orbit today to complete the world's first operational space weather reporting network.

Together with the earlier ESSA 1, the new weather watcher will provide a combination of global coverage every day and instant pictures to local forecasters in 22 nations.

Dubbed "everyman's satellite" because of its potential usefulness to all countries, the new weather observatory thundered away from Cape Kennedy right on schedule at 8:58 a.m. (EST) atop a Douglas Delta rocket that drilled it into orbit about 850 miles above the earth.

Check Systems

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration announced the success of the flight and officially named the satellite ESSA 2, for environmental survey satellite. Ground stations planned to activate its cameras on Wednesday, after first checking out all payload systems.

Each of the two cameras is to take and transmit a picture every six minutes.

ESSA 1, launched Feb. 3, also carries two cameras which photograph all areas of the globe at least once every day, storing the pictures on board until the payload is over one of two receiving stations in the United States.

These pictures are distributed to interested weather agencies around the world.

The instant pictures can be used to improve local weather forecasts, to issue warnings of severe weather and to help select the safest routes for aircraft in flight and ships at sea.

The Ejection Seats of Two Astronauts lie in the wake of the T-38 jet trainer that crashed late this morning at the McDonnell Aircraft Corp. building in St. Louis, killing Elliot M. See Jr. and Capt. ## Senate Controversy

Showdown Due on Viet Nam Argument

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Armed Services Committee, over a possible future role for the Viet Cong in the South Vietnamese government.

He would counterattack with a substitute proposal to reaffirm the resolution. Russell said he has the votes to win.

Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey and Sen. Robert F. Kennedy tangled further Sunday.

Kennedy, a New York Democrat, suggested again that in order to negotiate a peace in South Viet Nam, the United States "must understand that the Communists... might end up in some way or another within the governmental structure of Viet Nam."

Humphrey, who initially attacked Kennedy's proposal as being equivalent to putting "a fox in a chicken coop," said on ABC's television-radio program "Issues and Answers" that his first assessment might have been "a little too genteel."

"The Viet Cong is not a fox," Humphrey said. "It has a more rapacious nature."

"Assassination, Murder"

"The Viet Cong is not an Asian version of the Americans for Democratic Action or the liberal wing of the Republican or Democratic party," he said. "They

Anti-Strike Plan Topic of Labor Leaders

AFL-CIO Council Takes Up Another Issue With Johnson

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — The AFL-CIO Executive Council took up another sore point with the White House today in discussing President Johnson's antistrike proposal.

"There are grave problems for the government, labor, industry and the states" in any such new legislation, a spokesman for AFL-CIO President George Meany said.

Although the labor leaders say they have no details on what Johnson might recommend to Congress, they fear any antistrike legislation would curb their ultimate weapon.

Discussion of Johnson's antistrike proposal comes after two weeks of sniping between the AFL-CIO and the Johnson administration over White House efforts to hold down wage increases, how much of a minimum-wage increase should be recommended to Congress, and complaints that the Democratic administration has not lived up to its political promises to labor.

No Laws Being Drafted

Although no legislation reportedly is being drafted at the moment to curb strikes, the Labor Department has been working on drafts that could lead to a bill for Congress to consider.

Johnson first broached the proposal in his State of the Union message, saying he would ask Congress to consider measures to deal with strikes that threaten irreparable harm to the national interest.

On the economic front, AFL-CIO leaders still refuse to accept White House guidelines that attempt to hold wage increases to 3.2 per cent a year.

Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz said Sunday that "We've got to press harder" to persuade both labor and business to hold down wage and price increases that threaten inflation.

Price Index Hike Halts In January

WASHINGTON (AP) — The rise in consumer prices halted in January for the first time since last summer, the Labor Department announced today.

The consumer price index leveled off at 111 per cent of the 1957-59 average, where it stood in December. This was 1.9 per cent above a year ago.

Labor Department officials said the report was "gratifying after four consecutive months of increase."

Arthur Ross, commissioner of the Bureau of Labor Statistics, told reporters: "I would caution you not to make too much of this. We do not believe it is too significant."

Ross said there had been months during 1965 in which the index staved level or declined, even though the year-long movement was upward.

Fox Cities to Get Taste of Spring

Precipitation expected to total one-quarter to one-half inch. Rain or snow probably about Wednesday and again Friday or Saturday.

20,000 New ROK Troops To Viet Nam

SEOUL, South Korea (AP) — The South Korean Cabinet voted today to send about 20,000 more troops to South Viet Nam.

Meeting with President Chung Hee Park and other top leaders of the ruling Democratic Republic party, the Cabinet approved a government proposal to send a regiment in April and a division in July.

South Korea already has 20,000 troops in South Viet Nam. Among the non-Vietnamese forces, it is exceeded only by the Americans.

The government is expected to ask the National Assembly Wednesday to approve the troop movement. Tuesday is a national holiday.

Government officials said the U.S. government, in exchange for the decision to send more South Koreans to Viet Nam, had agreed to:

—Increase the pay of Korean troops in Viet Nam by 25 per cent.

—Maintain its military assistance program to Korea at the present level for the next few years.

—Supply more modern arms and equipment, including F5A fighters to South Korea and to underwrite activation of three reserve divisions.

—Enable South Korea to sell as much goods and services as possible to South Viet Nam under U.S. military procurement programs.

—Release to Korea $150 million in development loan funds as soon as possible. President Johnson promised the loan to President Park during his visit to Washington last May.

Nkrumah, on Way to Moscow, Vows Retaliation

Secret Red 'Freedom Fighters' Camp In Ghana's Jungle Unveiled by Rebels

ACCRA, Ghana (AP) — Ghana's new revolutionary government unveiled a secret jungle "freedom fighters" camp today. It said Red Chinese instructors helped train 133 African saboteurs there from South Africa, Rhodesia and other countries.

Newsman taken on a tour of the camp found a handful of African trainees plus a dozen instructors, most of them Ghanaian soldiers.

The instructors said they were paid by the Bureau of African Affairs, which was run personally by ousted President Kwame Nkrumah.

The camp commander, former regimental Sgt. Maj. Fuseimi Bazabarini of the Ghanaian army, told newsmen "about 13 Chinese came here to train Africans."

Bazabarini said the camp originally set up in western

Ghana, was moved to its present site 130 miles north of Accra in October 1964.

Vow By Nkrumah

Nkrumah, who was in Peking when he was overthrown Thursday, left the Red Chinese capital aboard a Soviet plane today. He vowed to crush those who deposed him, the Japan Broadcasting Corp. — NHK — said.

NHK's Peking correspondent

said Nkrumah's destination was not disclosed, but it was thought to be Moscow.

Dr. Jonathan Bosman, Ghana's high commissioner to Britain, arrived in London from Peking today. He said that when Nkrumah heard he had been thrown out he was stunned and didn't believe it.

Bosman left Peking with Nkrumah's foreign minister, Alex Quaison-Sackey, who got off at Frankfurt, Germany, to take a plane tonight for the meeting in Ethiopia of the foreign ministers of the Organization of African Unity.

Nkrumah apparently hoped support at the OAU meeting for the ousted regime. Possibly he hopes that the organization will refuse to admit the representatives of the new Ghanaian government.

Tucson Insurance Broker Robert F. Allen has very little time left to spend with his young family. Allen is dying from cancer. His only hope of surviving more than six months is finding someone with the same type cancer and blood so he can undergo a rare tumor transplant treatment. Surrounding him are sons Tracy, 6, left, Doug, 5, Sherri, 2½, and wife, Anita. (AP Wirephoto)

Cancer Victim Seeks Right Person Who Can Save His Life

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Robert F. Allen is still seeking the "right person" today who might save his life. In the past two days a ray of hope has brightened his search.

Allen, 28, a Tucson insurance executive, has osteogenic sarcoma, a rare type of bone cancer, and has been given two to six months to live by his doctors.

Allen, who has had one leg amputated, has received about 90 telephone calls from the people wanting to help.

A spokesman for Allen and his wife said this in itself is remarkable, since only those who suffer from the same type of cancer can help the stricken man.

Same Blood The person Allen seeks must also have O-positive blood. Allen said 10 of the volunteers may be able to help him and he will discuss their offers with his doctors.

If the donor meets the requirements, and agrees with Allen to undergo a new cancer treatment, both of them may live.

Dr. Sigmund H. Nadler and Dr. George E. Moore, of the Roswell Park Memorial Institute in Buffalo, N.Y., have performed a successful tumor transplant operation.

Tumor Combatants The doctors said they have found that antibodies can be generated to combat tumors by transplanting them from one patient to another.

White blood cells, which carry the antibodies, can be withdrawn from one patient and given to the other to destroy his cancer and vice versa.

Moore and Nadler said their treatment worked in the case of a woman with skin cancer. Although Allen has bone cancer, Nadler has agreed to perform the treatment on him and another patient.

"I don't care if the chances are 100 to 1 against it," Allen said. "It would be better than the 100-to-nothing odds I am facing now."

engage in assassination, murder, pillage, conquest and I can't, for the life of me, see why the United States would want to propose that such an outfit be part of any government."

Kennedy, appearing on CBS' radio-television program "Face the Nation," said he thought his Viet Nam position and that of the Johnson administration, as spelled out by presidential aide Bill D. Moyers, are essentially the same.

But he added there is a great difference between what he believes and the statements made by such administration spokesmen as Humphrey, Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Undersecretary of State George W. Ball.

"Perhaps Mr. Moyers and I are closer together than some of the other spokesmen are to one another," Kennedy said. Without specifically referring to Humphrey, he added:

"I think that statements that are made that we will never deal with assassins or murderers make it difficult for them (the Viet Cong) to believe that they are being asked to come to the negotiating table for anything other than to surrender."

Communist China, speaking through its official New China News Agency, termed Kennedy's proposal a trial balloon and said the Vietnamese people never will agree to the Viet Cong "playing a walk-on part as a showpiece in a puppet regime fostered by the United States."

A Republican organization joined in and accused both Humphrey and Kennedy of building up their images at the expense of U.S. foreign policy. The two are considered by some to be front runners in the race for the Democratic presidential nomination after Johnson steps out.

The Humphrey-Kennedy debate on Viet Nam, said the Council of Republican Organizations, "has confused the American people, contributed to national disunity and created international disquiet over our purposes."

The $144-million emergency foreign aid measure may be the subject of a Senate Foreign Relations Committee debate before the committee meets. It was that bill that served as the launching pad for the committee's highly publicized probe of Johnson's Asian policies.

Two administration supporters, Sens. Russell B. Long, D-La., and Stuart Symington, D-Mo., said they will attempt to cut off the committee's hearings and turn out the emergency bill for floor action.

aim of masterminding the coup. "These criminals will pay dearly and quickly," he declared in a broadcast.

The new Ghanaian government issued a proclamation today asserting its right to rule and suspending the constitution.

Ruled by Decree The 10-point proclamation said the National Liberation Council which overthrew Nkrumah's regime would rule by decree and set up committees to administer "the affairs of state."

In an analysis of Ghana's financial plight, the council of army and police leaders said the country had been brought to the brink of bankruptcy by "the gross economic mismanagement of the old government."

When Ghana gained independence from Britain in 1958 it had more than $560 million in the treasury. Today the nation is saddled with staggering debts.

In London, a political foe of Nkrumah said the ex-president has a hidden army of up to 1,000 Soviet, Chinese and Ghanaian troops waiting a signal from him to launch a counterattack in Accra.

Dr. Kobina Taylor, who said he headed Ghana's United party before Nkrumah outlawed it, claimed that the clandestine army has an arms cache with "10 times the fire power of the whole Ghana army plus enough food to last six months."

Taylor did not indicate what the secret force was doing when Nkrumah was overthrown.

Dr. Kobina Taylor, calling himself chairman of the Ghana United Party, speaks at a press conference in London Sunday. He said that ousted Ghana President Kwame Nkrumah has a hidden army of up to 1,000 Russian, Chinese and Ghanaian troops in Accra awaiting the word of Nkrumah to launch a counterstroke. Hits Top of Building The T38 plane was making an instrument landing in light fog when it hit and knocked off a section of the top of the building, skidded over the roof, and then crashed into a construction parking area below.

The plane burst into flames and was destroyed.

The plane was one of two T38 jet trainers circling in preparation for a landing at the St. Louis Municipal Airport adjacent to the McDonnell complex. The other plane landed safely.

The cause of the crash was not known. The Federal Aviation Agency said the plane was making an instrument landing.

The weather bureau said visibility was 1½ miles and the ceiling was 800 feet.

Treacherous Road to be Eliminated

'Slaughter Alley' In California Scene Of Many Fatalities

OCEANSIDE, Calif. (AP) — Slaughter Alley's days are numbered.

An eight-lane freeway will replace by 1968 the dangerous stretch of U.S. Highway 101 where six persons died during heavy fog Feb. 21 in flaming car wrecks.

The State Highway Division says it will call for bids within a month.

Meanwhile, Capt. Don Merry of the California Highway Patrol at Oceanside is seeking legislation to help him cut down the traffic death toll that has given the road its grim nickname.

Merry wants to keep gasoline tankers and other trucks with dangerous cargoes off the highway in bad weather.

Nelson Critical Of Cuts in Milk, Lunch Funds

Senator Foresees Action by Congress To Restore Monies

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Sen. Gaylord Nelson, (D-Wis.) was critical today of proposed cuts in support in four Agriculture Department areas, including the school milk and school lunch programs.

He said Congress "is unlikely" to allow these budget cuts to stand.

"There are important places where the budget can, and should, be cut," Nelson said. "But I'm at a loss to figure out why deep cuts are proposed for some of our most important and useful programs, such as school milk, school lunches, loans to REA cooperatives, and support for land grant universities."

Proposed Cuts:
Special school milk from $103 million this year to $21 million in fiscal 1967.
Loans to REA cooperatives from $402 million this year to $270 million in fiscal 1967.
School lunch program from $153 million this year to $129 million in fiscal 1967.
Support for land grant universities from $61 million this year to $41 million in fiscal 1967.

Becomes Surplus
Nelson was most critical of the cut in funds for the school milk program, which he said would end it in most schools. About 650,000 children are involved in Wisconsin.

"If this milk isn't purchased for the schools, it goes into butter, cheese and dry milk and ends up as surplus under the price support program," he said.

"Then the government has to buy it anyway, and ends up spending almost as much as it would to provide fresh milk to the schools."

Waupaca County Police Check Car-Deer Crashes

WAUPACA — Two accidents involving deer were investigated by county traffic police.

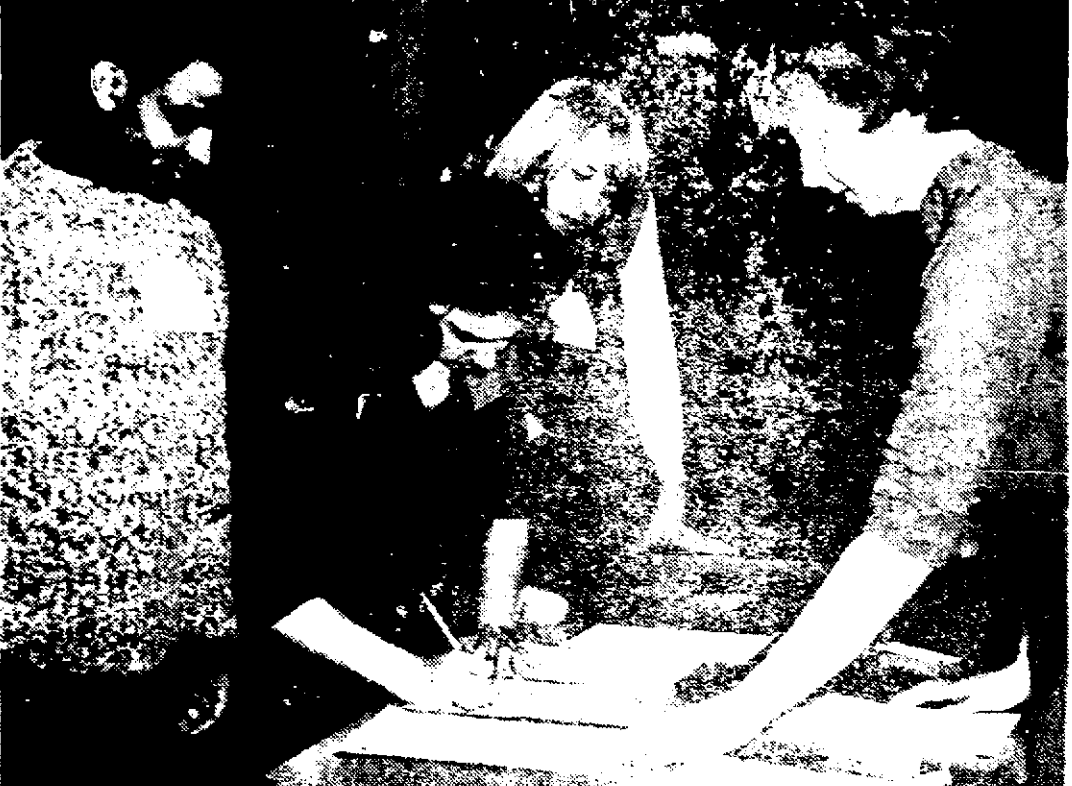

Garold F. Pagel, 28, 437 Factory St., Manawa, told police that at 10:45 p.m., Thursday, three deer ran into the side of his panel truck as he was driving south on Page Road, eight miles north of Manawa. Damages to the 1966 model truck were estimated at more than $400.

At 12:14 a.m. Friday Larry Miller, 18, route 1, was traveling west of State 54, one and one-half miles west of here when he struck and killed a deer. Miller escaped injury in the mishap but an estimated $125 damage was caused to the car he was driving.

Wolf Chairman Terminates Lease

Fox Valley Planners Told To Vacate Office Facilities

The Fox Valley Regional Planning Commission has been told to vacate its offices in the Home Mutual Building by April 30.

The commission received a letter Friday from Gordon A. Bubolz, president of Home Mutual Insurance Co. and chairman of the Wolf River Basin Regional Planning Commission, notifying the commission its lease is being terminated.

The letter stated that the Wolf planning group "will be needing the office space which you presently occupy. As you know, the Wolf River Planning Commission will soon be adding several more staff members and the space will be needed for this purpose."

The letter continued: "This is notice that Home Mutual Insurance Co. will terminate your lease as of April 30, 1966, and requests that you vacate the premises as of that date."

Eugene Franchett, executive director of the Fox Valley group, said that he considered it a rather short notice for an office with a complexity of the Fox Valley Regional Planning Commission but that "we will try to do everything possible to comply with the order."

The two commissions have been involved in a dispute over areas of jurisdiction for nearly two months.

Contacted today, Bubolz said the move has nothing to do with the dispute. He said "it has been very evident for some time that we would be adding more staff members and we would need more space."

Bubolz added that the office space used by the Fox Valley group is "convenient." The present offices of the Wolf River group are directly below those of the Fox Valley group.

Bubolz said there were no other vacancies in the building which the Wolf River group could use. He added that the commission staff is "crowded in the present situation."

Japan's Status as Ally To be 'Decisions' Topic

"Japan Resurgent: What Kind of Ally?" is the topic of a Great Decisions luncheon meeting to be held at noon Thursday in the Terrace room of Lawrence University Memorial Union.

Speaker at the meeting will be Chong-Do Hah, Lawrence instructor in government.

Hah, a native of Korea, has studied Japanese government and foreign policy throughout his academic career.

He is the author of "Bitter Diplomacy: Post-war Japan-Korea Relations," published in the book "Asian Studies 1964" by the University of Nebraska Press. He also has in progress a book-length manuscript entitled "Yoshida Shigeru's Foreign Policy."

Hah received a bachelor's degree from Indiana University, and a master's degree from the Woodrow Wilson School of Foreign Affairs, University of Virginia. He has been engaged in a doctoral program in government and history at Indiana University.

From 1946 to 1949 Hah was an assistant attorney in the Provost Court, U. S. Army Military Government in Korea, Pusan. He was a teaching associate in the field of American government at Indiana University for one year before his Lawrence faculty appointment in 1961.

His talk, sixth in the Lawrence Alumni - sponsored series, will be open to the public. Persons interested in attending the foreign policy series can register at the alumni office.

Medicare Topic Of Legion Forum At Shiocton

SHIOCTON—More than 50 persons attended the American Legion Auxiliary sponsored "Old Age Benefit" forum at the Legion Club Thursday.

Eugene Upton, Social Security field representative from Appleton; Ervin Conradt, Outagamie County state assemblyman, and auxiliary members took part in the program.

Upton's presentation centered on Medicare and how it affected the senior citizen. He recapped the history of the Social Security program and gave a brief rundown on Medicare benefits and costs.

Each person eligible for Medicare must register with the Social Security department to be covered. Cost of the program is $3 per month.

Conradt said Wisconsin was in the process of improving its benefit program for older citizens and gave an outline of various programs new conducted by the state.

Mrs. Ray Muskavitch and Mrs. George Kennedy were in charge of arrangements for the auxiliary.

New York Man Escapes Injury In Car Mishap

WAUPACA — A Rochester, N. Y., man escaped injury at 4 p.m. Friday five miles south of Clintonville on U.S. 45, when his car went out of control while he was avoiding a head-on crash.

Kenneth W. Schweger, 60, told county authorities that he was traveling south when he swerved to the right to avoid hitting an oncoming car that was passing on a curve. After leaving the roadway, the Schweger car traveled 617 feet in the ditch, crossed two private driveways, and narrowly missed a tree before it crossed the road and came to a stop in the east ditch.

The 1965 model station wagon Schweger was driving was demolished.

Taylor Says France Sold Out Viet Nam

Arbitrary Withdrawal Eliminated Settlement, General Claims

By HARVEY HUDSON
PARIS (AP) — With one brief exchange, Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor and former French Premier Pierre Mendes-France virtually stirred up military and political ghosts that most Frenchmen would prefer to leave in peace. At hearings of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, Taylor, former U.S. chief of staff and former ambassador to Viet Nam, said the North Vietnamese "have not forgotten that the Vietminh won more in Paris than in Dien Bien Phu and believe that the Viet Cong may be as fortunate in Washington." Taylor also said that Mendes-France "at the time of the Geneva accord arbitrarily set the date, I believe of July 20, which the French people would get out of (North Viet Nam) regardless of the status of the agreement."

Under additional questioning, Taylor said that by fixing a date for the withdrawal of French troops, Mendes-France "virtually sold out any chance of getting a reasonable settlement from the Communist Vietnamese."

Mendes-France declared he would give himself four weeks to negotiate the peace settlement and if it could not be achieved in that time he would resign. The National Assembly voted Mendes-France into office. 419-47. This was perhaps an accurate expression of the national mood that it was hopeless to continue fighting. The military people in Indochina were equally pessimistic. Gen. Henri Navarre, the French commander at the time, wrote in a position paper for French negotiators at the Geneva conference that a failure at Geneva would have a bad effect on troop morale, especially among Vietnamese soldiers under French command. He added that if a cease-fire should precede a final settlement and then be followed by a breakdown in negotiations "it would be almost impossible for France to take up the fight again alone, but it would not prevent it seems, a restart on entirely new bases — massive American intervention for example."

Need Reinforcements
Gen. Rene Cogny, who was French commander in North Viet Nam, told The Associated Press last week that after the fall of Dien Bien Phu May 7, 1954, he could have held out in his area until Oct. 1. After that, he said, he would have needed at least two new divisions of reinforcements.

Asked if he had been encouraged to think he could get the reinforcements, Cogny replied: "No. On the contrary, Rene Pleven, the defense minister, had told me we could not expect much in the way of reinforcements. Pleven said 'Remember we have a political deadline coming up too — the 1956 legislative elections.'"

When Gen. Navarre took command in Indochina, the French expeditionary corps included about 54,000 French army regulars, 30,000 North Africans, 18,900 Africans, 20,000 Foreign Legionnaires, and 108,000 Indochinese troops in the French army. In addition, there were 10,000 in the air force, 5,000 with naval units, and 225,000 men from the Vietnamese, Laotian and Cambodian armies.

Volunteers Only
France never sent draftees to Indochina. The fighting started Dec. 19, 1946, but during 1947, 1948 and 1949 the Vietminh forces were loosely organized guerrillas operating from the hill country and rice paddies of the Red River delta. It was not until the fall of 1950 that the Vietminh became organized and equipped. When the French draft period was extended from 12 to 18 months in 1950, Socialists insisted on putting in a clause that draftees could not be sent to combat zones outside France in time of peace. The Indochina conflict was never a declared war.

Long before Dien Bien Phu, agitation for peace was rampant in Paris. Communists labeled the fight the "dirty war." "Peace in Viet Nam" signs were daubed on vacant walls. The Communists, with about 100 deputies in the National Assembly, and the Socialists, with 105 members, were equally insistent on peace. They were joined by some Radical Socialists, including Mendes-France.

Pupils Planning Puppet Shows At Weyauwega

WEYAUWEGA — Twenty-six third grade pupils in the class taught by Mrs. Charlene Sintski will present a series of puppet shows Thursday evening at a meeting of the Weyauwega Elementary School Parents Club.

The children have fashioned all the puppets to be used in the three plays, "Spring Comes to Woodland," "Silly Little Rabbit," and "Witch on Cranberry Island."

A short business meeting at 7:45 p.m. will precede the program in the multi-purpose room. Refreshments will be served.

The committee composed of Mrs. Lawrence Schmies, chairman, Mrs. Harold Wentworth, Mrs. Charles Tumm, Mrs. Dwan Hunter, Mrs. Richard Billington, Mrs. Jim Tews and Mrs. Gordon Klug.

CD Members Finish Course

WAUPACA COUNTY — Twenty-two members of the Waupaca County Civil Defense Unit completed a four-week course in radiological monitoring Thursday, and were awarded certificates.

The weekly classes were held at the high school with Robert Damon, Appleton, as the instructor.

The course consisted of learning the operation of equipment used to check for radio activity. Cobalt was used by the men in the training program.

Organized by Vernon Johnson, Waupaca, County Civil Defense Director, the course was the first of its type to be held in the county. It was also the first course offered CD unit members since the unit was reorganized last year.

Johnson said, more training programs will be held in the future.

New London Man Scores 782 Points In Bear Bow Match

NEW LONDON — John Hedtke's 782 in bear bow shooting topped archers competing in matches at Ebert's Hall Wednesday.

Pioneer German Lutheran School Being 'Retired' After 77 Years

BY HAZEL THIEL
Post-Crescent Correspondent

SHERWOOD — One of the first Lutheran schools in this area is being "retired" by the church council of St. John Evangelical Lutheran Church, town of Woodville, after 77 years.

Arthur Buelow, route 1, Merasha, council president, says it will consider offers for the building, located just north of the parsonage on County Trunk M. three miles north of here. It must be moved from the premises.

The school was built in 1889 by Herman Franz, a carpenter member of the parish, for $365, when a need was found for a parochial school in the growing parish.

German School Commonly referred to by older residents as "German School," pupils were seventh and eighth graders, who received religious training in preparation for confirmation, as well as secular subjects. Sometimes as many as 25 students were taught by the minister who occasionally was assisted by his wife.

Children attended the last two years of grade school at the little white school house four days a week until 1933, when the subject of English was required in all schools by the state and pupils were unable to receive credit for the two years spent at the school unless they received the approved curriculum.

The parish voted to close the school and those who did not attend parochial school at Trinity Lutheran School, Kaukauna, received instructions three times a week from the pastor.

Church Hall When a church hall was built in the basement of the church in 1938 to accommodate social activities, the school was used for 2:55 p.m. Sunday to extinguish a fire in some pine trees along U.S. 45 on city-owned property at the west city limits. Damage was minor. Cause of the fire was unknown.

FACSIMILE BALLOT NOTICE FOR COUNTY BOARD OF SUPERVISOR PRIMARY ELECTION

March 8, 1966

STATE OF WISCONSIN } ss Office of County Clerk
OUTAGAMIE COUNTY }

To the Electors of Outagamie County:

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that an election is to be held in certain of the several towns, wards, villages and election districts of Outagamie County, Wisconsin, on the 8th day of March A.D., 1966, at which the officers named below are to be chosen. The names of the candidates whose nominations have been filed in this office, are given under the title of the office, in the sample below:

Information to Voters

The following instructions are given for the information and guidance of voters.

A voter upon entering the polling place and giving his name and residence will receive a ballot from the ballot clerk which must have indorsed thereon the names or initials of both ballot clerks, and no other ballot can be used. Upon receiving his ballot, the voter must retire alone to a booth or compartment and prepare the same for voting. A ballot clerk may inform the voter as to the proper manner of marking his ballot, but he must not advise or indicate in any manner whom to vote for.

At a non-partisan primary election, the voter shall place a cross or other mark in the square at the right of the name of the candidate for whom he intends to vote, or by inserting or writing in the name of any other candidate.

The ballot should not be marked in any other manner. If the ballot be spoiled, it must be returned to the ballot clerk, who must issue another in its stead, but not more than three in all shall be issued to any one voter. Five minutes' time is allowed in booth to mark ballot. Unofficial ballots or memorandum to assist the voter in marking his ballot can be taken into the booth, and may be used to copy from. The ballot must not be shown so that any person can see how it has been marked by the voter.

After it is marked it should be folded so that the inside cannot be seen, but so that the printed endorsements and signatures of the ballot clerks on the outside may be seen. Then the voter should pass out of the booth or compartment, give his name to the inspector in charge of the ballot box, hand him his ballot to be placed in the box, and pass out of the voting place.

A voter, who declares to the presiding officer that he is unable to read, or that by reason of physical disability he is unable to mark his ballot, can have assistance of two election officers in marking same, to be chosen by the voter; and if he declares that he is visually handicapped, he may have anyone assist him in marking his ballot or operating a voting machine. The presiding officer may administer an oath in his discretion, as to such person's disability.

The following is a facsimile of the official ballot:

Green Bay to be Served By Convair Airplanes

GREEN BAY — Green Bay will be served exclusively by Convair 440 airplanes for passengers starting Tuesday, when North Central Airlines will terminate service to three Wisconsin cities.

The service termination will affect Appleton, Clintonville and Ashland and is based on a Civil Aeronautics Board decision which designates Green Bay, Oshkosh and Ironwood, Mich., as regional airports. Under this decision, Appleton will be served out of Oshkosh, Clintonville out of Green Bay and Ashland out of Ironwood.

100 7th Graders Complete Baby Sitter's Clinic

KAUKAUNA — Approximately 100 seventh graders completed the Homemaker Club sponsored babysitting clinic held at the Vocational and Adult Schools the past two Saturdays, thereby qualifying for certificates and having their names placed on a qualified baby sitter list.

The list is compiled at the vocational school and made available to persons desiring a qualified sitter. This was the 10th year of the program which has seen almost 1,500 children receive baby sitting training.

Mothers tell what they expect of a sitter, baby sitters tell what new sitters may expect, registered nurses are utilized to explain proper care of infants and how to handle emergencies. Lessons are given in ways to help make things interesting to children and how to keep them amused as well as things to avoid giving children as they may be hazardous.

Following lectures and demonstrations, potential sitters ask questions or pose problems which might arise. A live baby was used to demonstrate bathing, changing and feeding an infant.

$30 in Stamps, Cash Taken in Weekend Theft

More than $30 in stamps and money were reported missing from one of two weekend office burglaries.

The money and stamps were taken from the office of George Narovec and Associates in the DeVob Building, 514 E. Wisconsin Avenue. The loss was discovered late Saturday night.

Appleton police said the money, about $29, and the stamps were taken from a metal cash box that had been pried open. Entry into the office was made by forcing a door and once inside, burglars ransacked a desk.

An unsuccessful attempt was made to enter Irene's Ideal Beauty Salon, in the same building, police said.

The second burglary was at the Ford Motor Credit Co., 604 N. Richmond St., where an office door was forced and a filing cabinet was entered.

Nothing appeared to be missing, police said. The burglary was reported by the office manager at 2 p.m. Sunday.

Kaukauna Firemen Answer Two Alarms

KAUKAUNA — Firemen were called at 11:10 a.m. Saturday to the Villa Restaurant, Second Street, when a motor on a furnace blower burned out, causing fumes in the building.

At 7:15 Saturday they answered a call to the Gale Voet residence, 304½ Dixon St., when grease under a burner on an electric stove ignited. Firemen disconnected the stove and advised the owner to clean up the grease.

The Revolution in Ghana

The overthrow of the government of Kwame Nkrumah is surprising in that the self-proclaimed hero of Ghana didn't have better security and intelligence agents. Otherwise the pattern seems much the same as in several other African nations this year.

The take-over was accomplished, apparently earlier than planned, because Nkrumah was out of the country on one of his "peace" missions to Peking. The plot was an extensive one with some masterminds in England where they had fled for fear of political imprisonment by Nkrumah in his gradual assertion of full power over the years since independence from Britain was granted in 1957. But the success relied upon the military and Nkrumah's own police force.

A military dictatorship appears likely such as have been proclaimed in half a dozen other African countries since last summer. Apparently the new leaders will be more friendly to the United States than was Nkrumah although his bombastic denunciations of American imperialism seemed to be primarily political propaganda to boost himself. At the same time he was publishing a book of such denunciation, he was applying for more United States aid.

Nkrumah became obsessed with raising statues to himself and with other trappings of splendor which didn't help his country very much. He insisted upon developing a Ghana airline which consistently lost a great deal of money but he failed to improve living standards of his people. And while the more primitive people of Ghana probably accepted his virtual canonizing of himself, there were others who began to grow up nationally. The growing dissatisfaction was nurtured by Nkrumah's insistence upon backing the Congo rebels and smiling toward Red China at a time when more and more Africans were disturbed by Chinese efforts to influence.

So far there is not much indication of what kind of a government will succeed Nkrumah. It is unlikely that it will be any more democratic but certainly it has no ties at least to the Chinese brand of Communism. It may be somewhat more responsible to the current needs of the people of Ghana.

The United States' policy in Africa the last few years has been a wise one and in considerable contrast to its policies in Asia. While disapproving of the rigid regimes, we have not intervened either out of a concern for the people or fear of Communism. The result so far has been conflict and revolution but locally motivated and carried out. In our associations with what are the rigid regimes of succession we must be careful not to become too closely tied so as to prevent future revolutionary trends toward more participation in government.

Nkrumah's overthrow must be causing the tightening of security measures in other African countries. It may also serve to encourage sounder economic and political policies in some nations, at least in planning for the future.

Laws Against Miscegenation

Certainly before long the United States Supreme Court should accept cases involving state marriage laws against miscegenation.

The laws, generally adopted in southern states, are not alike and their variety emphasizes their nonsense. Some states have laws prohibiting marriage between a white person and a Negro. Others frown on Orientals, Indians and Polynesians. But Maryland's law, which was discovered this year by a white girl and a Samoan man, has a really silly background.

In 1935 the Maryland Legislature recognized the concern in some areas about Filipino mess boys at the U.S. Naval Academy in Annapolis marrying local girls. So it passed a law banning marriage between a white or a negro with "a member of the Malay race." In Maryland a white person may marry an Indian or a Chinese and so can a Malay but they can't marry each other.

It is no small wonder that our motives in fighting a war in Southeast Asia are sometimes doubted as being quite as pure as they are touted.

Figures Don't Lie in Viet Nam

One of the problems brought out at the Viet Nam hearings before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and through television to a great many Americans was how to encourage more assistance for our cause in South Viet Nam.

The United States, Great Britain, France, the Philippines, Thailand, Australia, New Zealand and Pakistan are signatories to the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization upon which Secretary of State Dean Rusk bases our commitment in Viet Nam. The figures are not quite as bad as those presented at the hearing but nevertheless there is precious little help so far from these allies who have not interpreted the treaty as have the Americans.

England is tied down somewhat at least in maintaining forces in Malaya and Singapore because of the threat from Indonesia. But England's present government has spelled out clearly its intentions of withdrawing military forces from everywhere east of Suez as soon as possible. France clearly will send no troops or much else in the way of help. Australia and New Zealand do have fighting men in Viet Nam—something less than 3,000 troops. The Philippines have a couple of medical units and Vice President Humphrey spent some time trying to encourage the dispatch of a 2,000 man combat force. Pakistan is far more concerned about trying to get the Kashmir away from Indian control than what happens in Viet Nam. South Korea is the only other area which has sent troops.

An editorial in Life magazine by Hedley Donovan, titled "The War Is Worth Winning," points out another rather uncomfortable fact. While there are now some 200,000 American troops in Viet Nam, those actually engaged in combat or "available for serious offensive action" are between 80,000 and 90,000 since of course a great many are in other essential fields. But while the total strength of the South Vietnamese army is listed as between 650,000 and 700,000, Donovan says that "there are perhaps 25,000 to 40,000 South Vietnamese troops . . . that could be considered fully mobile offensive forces, unencumbered by fixed-defense responsibilities. . . . The allies have a total striking force of 150,000 men at the most and by the maximum mobility test the total would be more like 100,000."

The Viet Cong meanwhile are estimated at about 90,000, perhaps another 100,000 in small local cadres, and there are "perhaps a dozen regiments of the North Vietnamese army." Donovan scoffs at the idea that it takes a 10 to 1 ratio successfully to fight against guerrilla tactics. But even with the figures he suggests of 2 or 3 to 1, it can be seen that the current military strength in Viet Nam is woefully inadequate.

Reportedly this has been stressed by General Westmoreland in requesting once again as many troops from the United States as soon as possible. Some of the slack probably can be taken up by more effective training and equipping of South Vietnamese units and of course some of them are valuable in fixed defense positions as well. But it was recently revealed that there were 96,000 deserters from the South Vietnamese army in 1965.

In some ways this war has been compared to that in Korea. There are two major differences. Although the United States supplied about one half of the ground forces and the South Koreans about two-fifths, fifteen other United Nations member countries did have some troops in the area. The second difference is that the opposition was generally that of the North Koreans who unlike the Viet Cong did not control any real amount of either the land or the population in South Korea.

It well may be that this is a war we must win. Even opponents to our involvement have come up with few reasonable alternatives at this stage. But the government should have told the American people a long time ago how serious were the ramifications.

The North Koreans were stopped from their attempted conquest of the South. But Korea is still divided and the pressure by Americans to end the conflict may have vastly influenced the election in 1952.

There is considerable doubt that Americans will wholeheartedly support a war without a Lusitania or a Pearl Harbor.

We had 142,000 casualties in Korea, 37,000 of them killed in action. The Johnson Administration and the American public should stop fooling themselves that we'll get off any easier this time.

Rock-Winnebago Canal Proposed

100 YEARS AGO

Quoted from the Appleton Motor for March 1, 1866.

The convention of citizens of the Rock River Valley, held at Janesville on the 20th, to consult as to the best means of making the Rock River a navigable stream from its source to its mouth, was largely attended by the solid and substantial farmers and business men of Rock and adjoining counties, who manifested the most interest in the object for which they came together.

Col. Z. P. Burdick officiated

as chairman, and Orrin Guernsey acted as secretary. After the convention was called to order, Hon. Hamilton Richardson being called upon, came forward and at some length stated the object of the convention.

He also presented a report by S. D. Locke, of Janesville, of a survey of the upper Rock River, made with the view of connecting the same with Lake Winnebago by a canal, who gives numerous facts and figures to show that the project of building a ship canal to connect the head waters of the Rock River with Lake Winnebago, is, in every sense, practicable; and that the proposed canal can be constructed at a cost little, if any, exceeding the cost of a fully equipped railroad over the same line.

The convention also was addressed by Hugh Lee, an old and experienced engineer, who gave some statistics in regard to the expenses that would be involved in the proposed improvement.

He thought $800,000 would be sufficient to complete the work

Raising Taxes Doesn't Dampen Inflation; It Helps Create It

BY HENRY J. TAYLOR

Here we go again—sold down the river by an utterly false idea. Another burst of political nonsense floods the nation: A tax increase would dampen the inflation.

In simple, transparent truth it has no more to do with stopping inflation now than Batman or the frog.

Taylor

It's easy to see why politicians claim a connection between taxes and inflation. People don't like taxes. They also don't like inflation. The political problem, if you must raise taxes, is to show somehow that this helps the public welfare as a "battle against from Beloit to Lake Winnebago.

Mrs. Erik Madisen was the new president of the Appleton Lions Club Auxiliary, succeeding Mrs. George Johnson. Other officers were Mrs. George Hoffer, vice president; Mrs. James E. Schaifer, secretary; Mrs. Hugo Hinental, treasurer; Mrs. David Carlson, Mrs. W. E. Smith, Mrs. C. B. Turney, Mrs. Frank Weinkauff and Mrs. Johnson, directors.

Norbert Stammer, formerly of Appleton, was appearing in Orrin Tucker's band that was being featured in the movie at the Rio Theater. "You're the one," Stammer had been with Tucker's band for six years and was musical director of the organization. Stammer's daughter, Gloria June, 12, was visiting that week with her grandparents in Appleton, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stammer.

Walter H. Swanson, Lake Road, Menasha, was re-elected president of the Technical Association of Pulp and Paper Institute (TAPPI) at its annual convention that week in New York City.

Three area rinks won honors in the 11th annual invitational bonspiel sponsored by the Appleton Curling Club. The Harold Bammel rink from Waupaca was runner-up in the first event with fellow curlers Art Sherman, Dale Sherman and Ed Hart.

Winners of the second event were from Clintonville. Joe Petcka the skip, Joe Kuester, Woodrow Smith and "Red" Nolan assisting. Champions in the third event was Clintonville's Homer Sell Rink. Members of this team included Sell, Roy Martin, Robert Winkler and Walter Stevers.

Champion Appleton St. Mary basketball team and runner-up Menasha St. Mary team each placed three men on the all-freshman tournament team of the Diocesan conference. Zephyrs on the all-meet squad were Gary Batley, Ed Lotzer and Tom Balthazor. Appleton choices were Bob Roemer, Bob Ferrell and Joe Eich. inflation." Hokus—hokey—hokum.

Suppose the government spends add a thousand dollars a year to your income tax or mine, what happens to the money? They take it from us and spend it themselves.

The money supply and the pressure of purchases has not been reduced by one nickel.

We have a thousand dollars less to spend for ourselves. The bureaucrats have a thousand dollars more.

BRINGS MORE INFLATION

Actually, under today's conditions, increasing taxes creates more inflation. But are we told this? When taxes go up, take-home pay goes down. Millions need higher wages to live on what they earn, after taxes. This presses wages higher and higher as taxes go higher and higher.

Wages and taxes alike are prime items in the costs of production. Prices mount as wages mount and the higher taxes fuel them both. Up goes the cost of living.

Moreover, the Great Society's currency rotating process passes the people's tax money through a sieve of government overhead that drains off more of its value all the time. It costs the government so much to run itself that, no matter what the spending agencies do with the tax money left over, great loss is sustained by the working people who supply the money in the first place.

The only time an income tax is anti-inflationary is when it is used to reduce the government debt or in other ways used to lessen the money supply.

Nothing like that is proposed. All the talk is about more and more spending, more and more blowing into the inflationary balloon.

Taxes have several profoundly important virtues. They are the means by which a properly managed government can pay as it goes. Thus they are, in theory, the only real restraint on unlimited government spending. But the Washington Robin Hoods of the Red Ink found great political advantage by finally calling any restraints a "myth."

As one result the federal debt of $283 billion, which the New Frontier-Great Society inherited, is now officially expected to be $322 billion by July 1.

The inflationary chickens have come home to roost. The chief inflationary pressure is the government's misbanding of our own money at home and abroad. This pressure cannot be stopped until the deficit financing (government spending beyond income) is stopped. But the politicians have no such intention.

RED INK HOODS

If these opportunist Robin Hoods of the Red Ink said they were increasing taxes to meet and balance expenditures they would be fighting a true battle against inflation. Instead, all they're doing is to couple together in the public mind two badly misunderstood subjects (taxation and inflation), both of which are unpopular, and heretically present one as a solution for the other.

It's astounding that any business or other nonpolitical observers let this false connection go unchallenged. Yet some even say, "We don't like a tax increase, but inflation is worse." The power of cliches and falsities has become enormous and it's tragic to hear them confirm such nonsense.

We're faced by vast needs for government spending, much of which is unavoidable. But it is highly doubtful that we need higher taxes to meet the unavoidable needs because a reduction in the avoidable needs (and waste) probably could see us through without a tax increase. The tax intake is already tremendous.

In any case, the tax-inflation falsity has no place in a living problem as serious as this. The public that pays the bill is entitled to know that a public relations gimmick is ruling the subject and that we're the victims of an endrun around the simple truth.

How About Settling Automobile Claims by Out of Court Action?

BY JOHN WYNGAARD

MADISON — Besides worrying about steadily increasing rates for automobile insurance, motor vehicle owners are complaining about increasing cancellations and failure to renew auto contracts by the insurance underwriters, according to legislators who have spoken up on the question recently.

Wyngaard

The issue prompted the introduction of several bills in the legislature last year, which may be taken up when the lawmakers reconvene in the spring. No doubt it will be also one of the lines of inquiry of the special committee for the investigation of insurance regulation procedures that was ordered by the Legislative Council the other day.

As far as the individual policyholder is concerned, here is a more acute problem than the trend for higher premium charges. It seems likely that the vigor of the question as it has been pressed in the legislature means that some of the cancellations and failure to renew have been arbitrary.

Yet it is also perfectly evident, as the Insurance Department again took pains to explain in its most recent annual report on the Wisconsin insurance business, that a greater selectivity in risk taking is inevitable at a time of worsening claim experience and net losses in the operation in some of the underwriting companies.

COMPETITION

As the Insurance Department says, the Wisconsin insurance trade is noteworthy for its extremely competitive nature. Insurance companies, although subject to public supervision and regulation, are not public utilities in the sense that they are required to serve all without regard to their own definitions of suitability. They have freedom of contract, and in a highly competitive market, with a disturbing loss ratio, their managers obviously must be careful to avoid the poor risks.

Strictly Personal

Many Writers Had Medical Background

BY SYDNEY J. HARRIS

The death of Somerset Maugham not long ago reminded me that never again during his long life did he equal the artistic success of his early novel, "Of Human Bondage," which seemed to have been written at a deeper level than his later work.

Harris

One of the reasons may have been the large autobiographical element in the book: Maugham himself, as you may know, had attended medical school, planning to be a doctor—and "Of Human Bondage" drew largely upon this experience.

It is singular how many literary men have been doctors, or on their way to becoming one, when their careers became derailed into writing. The pre-eminent example, of course, is the great playwright, Chekhov, who once said that "Medicine is my wife, and writing is my mistress."

Arthur Conan Doyle began penning his Sherlock Holmes stories while waiting for patients as a new doctor: his practice languished, but his stories caught on, and he soon gave up medicine entirely. Sherlock Holmes, indeed, is generally believed to have been modeled on a doctor named Bell, who taught Doyle in medical school.

Both Keats and Shelley were headed toward medicine, when they turned instead to poetry, much to the benefit of English literature. The contemporary American poet, William Carlos Williams, was a practicing

The resentment among insurance policyholders about cancellation and acceptance practices, however, periodically gives rise to mutterings about establishing a state auto insurance system.

There was a reference to such a possibility when the Legislative Council authorized its investigating committee to pursue the subject the other day. It is not likely to be pursued seriously. More likely it is a kind of rhetorical club with which somebody hopes to frighten the insurance companies—or to impress his constituents.

A state insurance fund, under which all applicants would be accepted willy-nilly, would in effect mean the socializing of the poor driver risks. The rates would necessarily reflect experience, including the experience of the substandard risks. Thus the rates might not automatically be lower than they are in the private market. The worry about the rate acceleration that would come with compulsory automobile insurance—often but unsuccessfully proposed in the legislature in the past—was the principal reason for the failure of those propositions.

ARBITRATION

One of the evident causes of high insurance indemnity costs is the complex process of litigation of many of the claims. Here might be suggested an avenue of inquiry for the legislative committee, if there is an earnest intention to clarify the causes of insurance cost inflation. The legislature provided a precedent many decades ago when it provided for compulsory liability insurance for employers to cover personal injury indemnity claims of their employees. Employers have the option to contract for insurance with private carriers, with rates subject to their own loss experience.

But the claim procedure is through administrative action, rather than through the more costly court system, except as appeals from the administrative findings may be sought by either of the parties. As far as the record shows, there has been no serious objection to the plan during nearly half a century. Comparative figures are not at hand, but the naked eye suggests that claim settlements are also more expeditious than through the courts.

physician all his life, combining the two careers with unusual adeptness.

Oliver Goldsmith, Charles Darwin, John Locke, Havelock Ellis, Oliver Wendell Holmes, Zane Gray, James Joyce, Gertrude Stein, Robinson Jeffers, Michael Arlen, A. J. Cronin, Thomas Huxley, William James, Frank Slaughter, and Warwick Deeping—all these varied writers of poetry, fiction, philosophy, psychology and science were either doctors or medical students at one time.

It is no accident, I think, that the kind of temperament and training that lead toward medicine also can make for the clearest and most incisive and descriptive writing. Freud, it should be remembered, did not win any great awards for his medical research (although he should have), but he won the Goethe Prize and other high honors for his fine literary style of exposition.

One of the saddest aspects of modern medical education in America is that future doctors are trained so narrowly and technically, unlike the broad liberal education given to European doctors in the past, which made them truly educated men, able to relate their field to the broader tapestry of their times. Medicine is both wife and mistress to most of them.

Dominican Leader's Time Running Out

BY ROWLAND EVANS AND ROBERT NOVAK

WASHINGTON — The dangerous naivete of Hector Garcia-Godoy, provisional President of the Dominican Republic, is underlined by an improbable sequence of events producing deepest concern in Washington.

He actually put himself in a position to the Dominican military brass with a signed promissory note barring exile of any more military leaders—and then figuratively tore up the note under explosive leftist pressure. Now he may make a humiliating plea for help from U.S. and Brazilian troops stationed in his country to stifle his will on the rebellious generals.

Garcia-Godoy's current problem is the military. But his tendency to temporize with both the military and the far left is the rub that has top U.S. officials tearing their hair out. The hard fact is that nothing has been settled since the Santo Domingo revolt last April.

Public Support Low And time is running out. Garcia-Godoy's store of public support is low following repeated failures to stabilize national life. Little more than three months remain in which to out. But Garcia-Godoy has achieve a pre-election calm. The Dominican economy grows worse each day. In brief, Uncle Sam's Caribbean headache throbs as badly as ever.

The present crisis grew out of Garcia-Godoy's plan to calm the supercharged atmosphere by exiling both leftist revolutionary leaders and rightist military chiefs.

But navy Commodore Francisco J. Rivera Caminero, the Armed Forces Minister, balked. He finally extracted a deal from Garcia-Godoy: if Rivera Caminero left, no more military leaders would have to go. What's more, political neophyte Garcia-Godoy (a businessman by profession) did what no ward-heeler would do: he put it in writing.

Garcia-Godoy's attempted compromise triggered a general strike and renewed violence from Communist elements. So the President flip-flopped and agreed in a speech last week to crack down against everybody — right and left. U.S. officials were hopeful that Garcia-Godoy was about to take charge. It hasn't happened yet, however.

Although the left ended its general strike, the army and air force chiefs it wants exiled are still in the Dominican Republic defying Garcia-Godoy's orders. And in his rented Washington hotel apartment, Rivera Caminero brandishes the regrettable letter from Garcia-Godoy.

Risks General Strike Here is another of the recurrent Dominican crises that thwart any return to normalcy. If Garcia-Godoy cannot talk the army and air force chiefs into leaving the country, he risks another violent general strike against the military.

Garcia-Godoy's influence with the military might be greater if he had shown more muscle in cleaning out armed leftist gangs that still control sections of Santo Domingo. The U.S. has discreetly encouraged, and new police equipment (weapons and two-way radios) to help root them out. But Garcia-Godoy has

Texas Branch of Klan Pushes for Total Victory in Viet Nam

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Royce McPhail, grand dragon of the Texas Ku Klux Klan, says the Klan will rally here this spring for "an even harder line in Viet Nam—total victory."

Hate-America Drive Controls Red Chinese

CHICAGO (AP) — A Canadian journalist who spent three months in Red China last year says the Chinese government's hate-America campaign is the best means it has to keep control of its 700-million people.

"The Western world can afford the luxury of allowing everyone to make up his own mind about the world," said Charles B. Lynch of the Southern News-papers of Canada. "It is a luxury that China cannot afford."

launched no campaign against the terrorists.

However, Garcia-Godoy's immediate problem is the military, not the Communists. And at this writing, it is hard to see how he can force the exile of air force and army chiefs without outside help — meaning the Inter-American Peace Force of Brazilian and U.S. troops.

The former Peace Force commander — Brazilian Lt. Gen. Hugo Panasco Alvim — is an impassioned anti-Communist who flatly refused to move against the military two months ago. His successor — Brazilian Maj. Gen. Alvaro Alves da Braga — is more moderate. He is counted on to lead his U.S.-Brazilian force against the Dominican army if need be.

The mere threat of Peace Force action probably would force the exile of the military leaders. But this would hardly help the prestige of Garcia-Godoy (who says publicly he doesn't want to use the Peace Force). More important, it would undermine the Dominican military as one potentially stable institution in the new Dominican society.

Thus, it would be preferable if Garcia-Godoy could win out over the military without outside help. It may be his last chance to establish a firm authority and a measure of political stability before the election, an uncertain and dangerous prospect in itself.

To Your Good Health Doubt Need of Boric Acid as Home Remedy

BY JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D. — Dear Dr. Molner: You oppose boric acid as home remedy, but what do you suggest for an eye-rinse? Also what about boric acid baby powders? They contain some boric acid, don't they? — J. P.

Yes, I think boric acid might better be discarded as a home remedy. Its danger is too great a price to pay for its occasional usefulness.

As an eyewash, there is no need to use boric acid. Rinsing the eyes is a function of tears and the natural moisture of the eyes. Medicated washes interfere with Nature's normal irrigation. If a safe irrigant is desired, one can use a weak salt solution: One quarter teaspoonful of salt dissolved in six ounces of warm water.

If, in severe cases, medication is needed, salves can be used on the lower lid, as directed by your doctor, or drops can be applied with a sterile

Carrots (along with a great many other foods) contain carotene, a forerunner of Vitamin A. We all need Vitamin A, and except under most unusual circumstances, we all get it. An extreme lack of it can interfere with night vision, in which case, naturally, Vitamin A helps correct the trouble. But for anyone eating an anywhere - near-normal diet, a surplus of carotene, or other forms of Vitamin A, won't do the eyes any good.

Dear Dr. Molner: Why do some doctors refuse to give people more than one flu shot a year? When can I go to get two shots annually? I am 52 and the flu shots help me a great deal — Mrs. J. B.

Other than in epidemic conditions, two shots annually are needed only when a person has not been previously vaccinated for flu. The first is a sensitizing shot, and the second builds immunity.

After that, for all practical purposes, one shot a year (a booster) will maintain protection. If a flu epidemic comes along, a second shot is a safeguard, bringing you up to maximum safety at that time.

Miami School Disciplines 53 In Exam Theft

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — A University of Miami spokesman says 53 students have been disciplined in the case of the stolen exam.

Two students who broke into a professor's office to steal test questions were expelled. Nine others who helped distribute the questions among a class of 1,557 students were suspended for up to a year. Forty were given probation, and two a warning.

All 53 wound up with a failing grade in the class, Natural Sciences 101.

Dr. William R. Butler, vice president for student affairs, announced the action Thursday after more than a month of investigations, hearings by the Student Honor Council and appeals.

Most of the students involved were freshmen, said Dr. Butler, and represented only a small percentage of their class.

Africa Could Become More Deadly Than Southeast Asia

Ideological Revolts Stir Turmoil In Tremendously Vital Continent

By WILLIAM L. RYAN, AP Special Correspondent

Africa has been the target of both Soviet and Chinese ambitions. Its natural riches are important to the industry of the West and the West's standard of living.

The great upheaval in Ghana was another in a chain of events that have dealt blows to those who sought the Russians and Red Chinese to exploit Africa's continental riches.

In a world struggle Africa could be considered even more important than Southeast Asia. Some African leaders hunt at a Congo it could control all Africa that the continent may become the scene of struggles more deadly than what goes on today in Viet Nam.

Develop A Powerful Memory?

A noted publisher in Chicago reports there is a simple technique for acquiring a powerful memory which can pay you real dividends in both business and social advancement and work like magic to give you added power, necessary self-confidence and greater popularity.

According to this publisher, many people do not realize how much they could influence others simply by remembering accurately everything they see, hear, or read. Whether in business, at social functions or even in casual conversations with new acquaintances, there are ways in which you can dominate each situation by your ability to remember.

To acquaint the readers of this paper with the easy-to-follow rules for developing skill in remembering anything you choose to remember, the publishers have printed full details of their self-training method in a new book, "Adventures in Memory," which will be mailed free to anyone who requests it. No obligation. Simply send your request to Memory Studies, 635 Diversey Parkway, Dept. 7543, Chicago, Ill. 60614. A postcard will do. Please include your zip code.

making some leaders easy prey to blandishments of those seeking to exploit them politically.

The Russians plunged enthusiastically into Africa in the late 1950s. Since 1958 they have extended more than $800 million worth of loans to new black African nations. About 4,000 Africans study in Soviet schools.

The Russians made it fairly obvious that they considered Africa a decisive sector in the struggle between Soviet-style socialism and the Western way of life.

The Red Chinese, too, entered the contest fairly recently. Trade and cultural missions crisscrossed the continent, playing on African memories of colonialism and fear of a bogey called "imperialism."

Deliberately, Red China's envoys — including Premier Chou En-lai and Foreign Minister Chen Yi — preached a doctrine that the world was destined into two hostile camps: white and nonwhite, and that a clash of the two was inevitable. They represented China as evidence that the nonwhite world could compete successfully with the Red setbacks. But both China and the Soviet Union had sharp setbacks in Africa.

The Russians evidently had expected classical development of revolution, emergence of a proletariat which would take over nations. But there was no proletariat, no industrialization to speak of. The Russians burned their fingers in countries like Guinea, Mali and the Congo, and found themselves targets of criticism and retaliation from quarters they wanted most to impress.

Today the Russians are careful in their treatment of Africa. Their slogans are keyed to "social progress" with less emphasis on politics. They tell Africa that Moscow favors "noncapitalist paths of development," a deviation from Leninism which Red China sees as added evidence that Moscow was abandoning world revolution.

The Chinese found themselves suspect in country after country and ejected from a number of them. They had preached that the time was ripe for revolution in Africa. But African leaders had little love for the idea of revolution in newly independent nations.

Chinese propaganda constantly plays on the theme that anti-imperialist, revolutionary day in Africa. African leaders indicate more and more an acute awareness of the potential of Chinese interference and subversion.

There have been complaints of Communist meddling in Mali, Central Africa, Sudan and elsewhere. In the Brazzaville Conference, the Chinese have had what amounted almost to a base of operations for the world continent.

That is only part of the picture of the bubbling African pot. Portugal spends about 40 percent of its budget on security in its African colonies: Portuguese Guinea, Angola and Mozambique.

Portugal has firmed up relations with the white governments of Rhodesia and South Africa. Rhodesia, which proclaimed its independence in a wary Britain called illegal, has been chronically tense under heavy pressure though it seems heartened by the overthrow of Nkrumah, one of its most belligerent critics.

Much of Africa has been appalled at the high cost of independence.

African governments invariably call themselves democratic, but democracy in Africa is just a word whose meaning depends upon who interprets it.

The idea of socialism took hold among leaders who felt everything had to be government-planned because Africa was so far behind the northern world. Tom M'Boya, a Kenya Central African Republic, Up government minister, put it per volta and Nigeria. Last week military men ousted Nkrumah as Ghana's African socialism.

African Socialism. But frequently African socialism, too, is just a vague label. What has emerged in many areas has been dictatorship, possibly regarded as the only logical way of ruling nations plagued by backwardness, lack of leadership, lack of education, overpopulation and threats of mass hunger.

Military government becomes the order of the day as attempts at representative government bog down under the weight of the problems and conflicts. Country after country is taken over by army coups. The man with the gun wields the power.

Ghana's Nkrumah had pushed the idea of African federation — evidently to be led by him. This said one of his ministers, would place Africa beyond the reach of imperialist control. This would be the "new Africa."

But there is no unity in Africa. The slogan "Africa for Africans" is virtually meaningless. There is fear on all sides of domination, if not by non-African powers, then by one another.

There are innumerable ethnic and tribal divisions. Africa's problems have been compounded by a game of statistical Chinese interference and subversion.

Plans Sought to Finance Accelerated Road Program

Highway Department to Report To Legislative Council's Panel

Post-Crescent Staff Bureau

MADISON — The State Highway Department has been asked to report to the Legislative Council's highway advisory committee on alternate plans for the financing of an accelerated interstate and state trunk highway construction program. High on the list of revenue plans to be studied will be a compilation of all forms of highway user taxes now collected in Wisconsin many of which are not now segregated for expenditures on highways. Sen. Reuben LaFave (R-Oconto), author of the motion to accelerate the highway department's report, said that a check with the state Tax Department revealed that an estimated $26 million a year is raised from non-segregated highway user taxes.

The move to study revenue raising schemes other than a state bonding program for highway construction and improvement or an increase in the state tax charged on gasoline sales came after a tentative compromise was suggested to the committee concerning the two previously suggested financing measures.

Accelerated Program

Earlier, Highway Commission Chairman G. H. Bakke reported to the committee that some form of accelerated program is needed for the improvement of the state's trunk system and early completion of Wisconsin's share of the interstate highway system. He strongly endorsed a proposed bonding program, saying that it would supply the needed funds to complete the interstate system years before the contemplated 1974 target date. It would also allow the improvement of many state trunk highways to freeway standards, he said.

He called his proposal "modest" and warned that no new highways would be created through such a project.

The price tag attached to his suggestion was about $20 million for the interstate portion of the construction to be spread between the date of approval of the suggested bonding program and completion of the system. Another $15 million a year would be spent on the state trunk portion of the plan, to be continued for as long as the legislature approved the plan.

Less Cost
Bakke said that the costs of such a bonded construction program would be less than the cost increase caused by waiting until funds become available through normal revenue raising schemes. The interstate program, he pointed out, would pay for the actual construction costs over time as federal aids are granted the state for the system between now and 1974.

Both programs would save the state more than their costs in prevention of accidents and deaths, decreased vehicle operating expenses and the expansion of the state's tourist economy, Bakke said.

The consensus of the committee was that some type of accelerated program is necessary, but some members proposed that the costs be met through an increase of one or two cents per gallon of the state gasoline tax.

Objects to Suggestions

Charles Elliot, executive secretary of the Wisconsin Petroleum Council, objected to both suggestions, stating that Wisconsin's highways are among the best in the nation. His group does not oppose an increase in the gasoline tax, he said, if the money is desired for a worthy purpose. But he objected to the assumption that an accelerated program is necessary for the state.

Assemblyman Kenneth Kunder (D-Sheboygan) suggested that a bonding program for the interstate system might be used in conjunction with the application of the federal funds so released to the state trunk improvement program. This would, he said, provide elements of the bonding program and the pay-as-you-go features desired by the gasoline tax increase advocates.

Alfonso Backs Idea

Republican Assembly floor leader Paul Alfonso (R-Minnesota) said at the meeting that while he personally favored the pay-as-you-go scheme for such programs, he would back a state bonding program if his choice failed to win passage.

"The sooner we finish the interstate system the sooner we will get state freeways up into northern Wisconsin," Alfonso said.

His sentiments were echoed by Assemblyman Willis Hutnik (R-Lady Smith).

LaFave then said that he would not be willing to vote on either plan until all other alternatives had been explored, and called upon the highway department to report on other possibilities for raising money for the program, which will come before the May session of the legislature.

Sorensen Criticizes Johnson's Viet Nam Policy During Speech

NEW YORK (AP) — Theodore C. Sorensen, one of President John F. Kennedy's closest advisers, says military force will not solve the Vietnamese problem.

Sorensen said he agrees with Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., that the Viet Cong might end up with a share of power in a coalition government in South Viet Nam.

Sorensen contended in a speech Sunday night at a Democratic club gathering that the Johnson administration is guilty of "platitudes and pieties" over Viet Nam. He urged controversy rather than complacency on the subject.

Nehru's Sister Cancels WSU-O Visit Thursday

OSHKOSH — Wisconsin State University-Oshkosh has received word that Madame Krishna Nehru Huthesing, younger sister of India's late Prime Minister Nehru, will be unable to appear here Thursday. Madame Huthesing was scheduled to speak on "The New Woman of India" at 8 p.m. Thursday at the campus school Little Theatre.

Mrs. Ruth Nelson, dean of women, received a wire today stating that Madame Huthesing is ill and will not be able to come to Oshkosh. University officials reported that they hope to reschedule her appearance in April.

Third Damaged in Month

Outagamie Squad Car Demolished in Crash

The third Outagamie County squad car accident in less than a month has left the driver uninjured but the car a total wreck.

Traffic Patrolman LeRoy W. Ziegler, 36, 2336 Apple Creek Road, escaped injury at 7:27 p.m. Sunday when the 1966 model squad car he was driving on the way to an accident left a curve on Quarry Road in the Town of Center and struck a utility pole.

Ziegler said he was traveling west on Quarry Road, responding to an accident call south of New London. The car traveled 206 feet before breaking off the utility pole and then traveled another 121 feet, according to the report.

Authorities, who said the cause of the accident is still being investigated, listed the car as a total loss. The accident occurred a third of a mile east of County Trunk A.

Another squad car was demolished early the morning of Feb. 3 when it went through a guard rail on County Trunk OO and dropped about 25 feet onto U.S. 41.

About a week later, a third squad car was struck from behind by a bus while it was halted for a red light in Appleton. The rear of the car was damaged.

Liberace Still Popular After Quarter Century

His Audiences Diversified in Age, Which Makes His an Entertainment Phenomenon

By BOB THOMAS HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Liberace calls himself Mr. Showmanship. His detractors have called him the wizard of ooz. By any name he is a phenomenon in the entertainment industry.

By all logic, his career should now be limited to playing club dates in retirement cities. During the height of the Liberace craze his appeal seemed centered with the general set who wanted to grandmother him.

Judy Garland, Bill Cosby Visit Perry

BY TV SCOUT 8-9—Channels 45 — Perry Como's Music Hall is back with a pair of topflight guests — Judy Garland, a sequin-coated dumptin', and Bill Cosby, the I Spy co-star. 6:30-7—Channels 45—George Hamilton, the dapper young man of the world, drops in to host Hullabaloo. It's a fast-moving session, with stout-hearted guests Iainie Kozak, the Young Rascals, Mel Carter and Simon and Garfunkel. (Color)

7:30-8 — Channels 2-12 — A mean "widdle" kid almost, but not quite, gets the best of the heroine of The Lucy Show. Jay North, who has grown a few inches in meanness since he became the title role in the Dennis the Menace series, is Lucille Ball's stubborn foil. He is particularly delighted when she turns up as a "robot" called Major Fun-Fun. (Color)

8:30-9 — Channels 11-6-9 — A Man Called Shenandoah has another touch-and-go session. While leafing through an Army archive, hero Robert Horton discovers a photograph of a soldier who looks just like him.

9-10—Channels 4-5 — Sharpen your pencils. Testing: How Quick is Your Eye? is still another quiz in which viewers can compare scores with the nation-at-large. This time your powers of observation and perception are tested. Host Frank McGee is especially keen to discover how well you see when you are influenced by emotional and physical factors, and he has a number of vignettes on film to draw out your answers. (Color)

9-10—Channels 2-12 — Hollywood Talent Scouts mainly occupies itself with lessons for the young and foolish at heart. Audrey Meadows (who was born in China) is on hand to teach host Art Linkletter Chinese. Dean Smith shows how stuntmen tear a Hollywood Western saloon apart. Also prominent are Jan Murray, Robert Horton and a flock of hopeful amateur performers. (Color) most $30,000 a week from teenagers as well as the geriatric set. Saturday night he displays his opulent style as emcee on Hollywood Palace.

Liberace started to reflect on his 25 years before the public as he devoured the calf liver special at Scandia Restaurant.

"My image in the beginning — during the white-hot period — was mocked and mimicked," he analyzed. "But as the years went on, people began to realize that I myself kidded the Liberace image."

"I make an act out of my image. As soon as people understand that I don't really walk down Sunset Boulevard in a gold lame cape and pants, then they come over to my side. They're always surprised to find out I'm a nice guy."

Turning Point Then he talked about the turning point in his career.

"It was after the white-hot period was over," he recalled, "and they were still trying to put me in 40,000-seat arenas and field houses."

"The climax was in Akron, where I was booked in a 40,000-seat place on Fourth of July at $35,000."

"It rained, and I stayed over two days to fulfill the engagement. Well, the excitement of the Fourth of July had gone, and we drew 6,000. I received part of the fee, and when I got back to the hotel, the check bounced."

Concert Phase "That's when I told my people to stop trying for the big houses and develop concerts. Once the word gets around that you drew 6,000 in a 40,000-seat place, you're dead."

During his silver-anniversary year, Liberace told his handlers, he expected to work less and earn more. And by choosing his dates carefully he has been able to do just that. His concerts during the year reportedly grossed $800,000.

Sharpener for Wax Crayons Can be Constructed Easily

BY CAPPY DICK A discarded carton shaped like a discarded carton. The paddle wax crayons is today's fun-should fit easily into an empty project for handy boys and shoe box as in Figure 2, the box girls. It can be constructed from simple materials found around almost any home.

Anyone who uses wax crayons knows how important it is to maintain sharp points on them.

Use corrugated paddle. You just can't do good art work with blunt crayons. However, sharpening them with a knife, to construct the special Dan Sparks with the Heiberg sharpener, start by cutting a Strip Ensemble. All Fox Cities piece of corrugated board (from musicians).

Lady Bird Is Happy With Lynda's Life

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson says her daughter, Lynda, who has been on a number of dates recently with a young actor, "is just going through a sparkling gay time and I couldn't be happier."

Lynda, who is dating other young men, has been getting the whirl from tall, dark-haired George Hamilton, a movie and television performer.

Hamilton, 26, has been with the President's daughter on recent holidays in Acapulco, Mexico, and at the Mardi Gras celebration in New Orleans.

Lynda, 21, is now in her senior year at the University of Texas. She returned to the school in her native state after a "more natural way of life," attending George Washington for her living in a sorority house in Austin, Tex., with 39 other young women, she said.

Mrs. Johnson said in an interview this week she thought the move back to Texas had been a fine thing for Lynda. It provided married in August.

Education Act Will Be Discussed at Fond du Lac Workshop

FOND DU LAC — More than 3,000 Wisconsin school officials have been invited to a workshop next weekend on the 1965 Elementary and Secondary Education Act by Sen. William Proxmire (D-Wis.).

The meeting will be at 9 a.m. Saturday, March 5, at Goodrich High School.

Federal agencies participating in the conference will include the Offices of Education, Economic Opportunity, Vocational Education and Vocational Agriculture.

Proxmire said invitations were sent to every school administrator and elementary and secondary school principal, public and private, in Wisconsin.

Lynda's younger sister, Luci, is engaged to Pat Nugent of Waukegan, Ill. They are to be married in August.
